La tortue qui a bravé le danger

The Turtle Who Turned the Tide

A heartwarming tale of adventure, bravery, and one baby turtle who changes her world for good — from the bestselling and award-winning creators of La souris qui rugit.

On a midnight-black beach, it's time for a grand hatching. A rowdy crowd of animal onlookers have gathered to see which baby turtle will win the great race to safety in the sea.

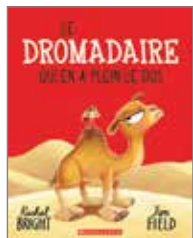

But when Tula's brother loses his way, this baby turtle faces a difficult choice: will she choose to win the race or will she turn back to rescue her brother? And will the other animals stay on the sidelines, or will Tula's brave decision inspire them to join the rescue mission?

An inspiring and funny rhyming story of how we ALL have the power to change things for the better.

RACHEL BRIGHT is the author of Le gecko qui chantait trop haut, Le cachalot qui en voulait trop, Le koala qui ne voulait pas, Le loup qui a perdu son chemin, Les écureuils qui se querellent, La souris qui rugit, Le dino anxieux, and Le dino câlin. On ne mord pas ses amis

Friends Are Not For Biting

Teeth are powerful, amazing tools for chewing and eating...but teeth are not for biting our friends and family!

Liam loves pretending to be a lion. He roars. He pounces. He plays! But when he feels frustrated, overwhelmed, tired, or too excited, his body tells him it's time to bite!

Written by preschool therapist, Ryan Allen, this incredible, funny, helpful book, will guide children to recognize the signs that they are about to bite, and teaches great techniques and positive alternatives to stay safe and have fun. There are many reasons why kids bite, from boredom to excitement, painful teething to cranky frustration; this is a common experience for many toddlers. But with a gentle approach, there are equally many ways to identify, soothe, and change behaviours.

RYAN ALLEN became a child therapist because he wanted to help kids in those crucial years when their brains are still malleable and they are able to learn the skills that will help them for the rest of their lives. He helps families use the little time they have together to connect rather than fight and, in so doing, help to find peace in their homes. Ryan has helped families both in his practice in Atlanta, Georgia as well as around the world on TikTok where his viral videos have received over 13 million likes.

ZOE PERSICO is an illustrator with a love for everything cute, colourful, and full of whimsy. She is the illustrator of J'ai entendu dire..., The Whatifs, Greta and the Giants, and Georgia's Terrific, Colourific Experiment. She enjoys hiking, cooking, playing Dungeons & Dragons, hunting for good finds at the thrift store, and watching documentaries. She currently resides in sunny Florida with her significant other and their dog, Zombie.

★ PRAISE

" Allen focuses less on Liam's biting and more on the motivations behind his actions. Many kids will recognize themselves in the protagonist... In an appended note, Allen provides useful strategies for understanding and redirecting biting. A gentle parenting guide for curbing chewy childhood behaviour. "

Le chat raplapla : La mascotte de classe

Flat Cat #2: The Class Pet

From the #1 New York Times bestselling illustrator of Le fromage prétentieux, Pete Oswald, and critically acclaimed author Tara Lazar, comes a hilarious back-to-school adventure with our favourite flat cat!

Flat Cat was born flat. He wasn't squashed under the lunch lady's rolling pin. He wasn't smushed by an avalanche of library books. He was just flat. And most of the time, Flat Cat liked it just like that.

Until one day, when Flat Cat, in the mood for a change of scenery, slips into his friend Willow's backpack and accompanies her to school, where he gets folded into a paper airplane, passed as a secret note, and used as a bathroom pass. Will Flat Cat be able to escape the chaos? Or will he realize he is keen to be loved and adored?

TARA LAZAR finds it fabulous to be foolish about felines. She opened the door to a cat mewling, offered the stray a can of tuna, and the cat never left. She is the author of 7 Ate 9, The Monstore, Bloop, and more. You can find them all — Tara, her husband, two daughters, and a black cat — somewhere in New Jersey.

PETE OSWALD is a fine-arts painter, an animator, an author, and an illustrator. He illustrated the New York Times bestselling books La mauvaise graine, L'œuf modèle, and Le pois chic by Jory John. He has also worked as a character designer and concept artist on the movies Madagascar: Escape 2 Africa, Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs, and the Oscar-nominated ParaNorman. Pete lives in Los Angeles, California, with his wife and their three sons.

★ PRAISE

" Flat Cat's adventures are amusing — he's a paper airplane, a secret note, a bathroom pass — but like the message in Jeff Brown's Flat Stanley, this shows Flat Cat's willingness to go with the flow and help out a friend in need. An amusing and memorable story for cat lovers. "

La timidité de Sammy

Sammy Feels Shy

What do you do when fear stops you from having fun? From the creator of Le souci de Calie, La timidité de Sammy is a story about feeling shy and finding ways to have fun anyway.

Sammy LOVES having fun. Especially at home. But in big groups — like at school, birthday parties, even the ice cream truck — he doesn't love feeling like other people are looking at him, and it's really hard talking to other people. Everyone tells Sammy not to be so shy. But one day, it gets so hard and scary that he starts to turn pink, and then pinker...until he's bright pink ALL OVER! Then he doesn't want to see anyone or do anything. But hiding out alone isn't very fun. Can Sammy learn how to tackle his fears and go back to his usual colour?

This warm, affectionate, and relatable book is the perfect starting place for talking to children about shyness and feeling self-conscious.

TOM PERCIVAL is a writer, artist, video producer, and musician. Tom writes and illustrates his own picture books, including Les petits mensonges de Finn, La jalousie de Milo, Tout à fait Normand, La rivière, La persévérance de Tilda, Invisible, Les amis de Meesha, Le souci de Calie, and La colère de Ravi. Luck

“Catch the last leaf before it touches the ground, and be granted good luck, the whole year round!”

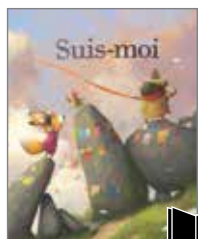

Rabbit wanders through the woods day after day, waiting as the leaves fall to the ground. One day, he spots the very last leaf, but the wind blows it away! Off he goes, chasing the leaf with some help along the way. Will he be the lucky one to catch it?

A tender tale about the importance of kindness and what it truly means to be lucky.

CHRIS SAUNDERS lives and works in the UK. Chris describes his work as storytelling using gentle, floating and atmospheric imagery with exaggerated physics.

#2: Monster Blood

While staying with his great-aunt Kathryn, Evan Ross visits an eerie old toy store. Among the dusty shelves, he finds a can of something called "Monster Blood." The odd, sticky substance really does look like the blood of a creature. It has a greenish glow and sometimes feels warm to the touch. But the most alarming thing about the toy ooze is the way it keeps growing — overflowing its container, then a bathtub, then filling up a whole trash can. Evan worries that all that growing has given the Monster Blood a monstrous appetite...

R.L. STINE is the creator of the bestselling Chair de poule series, which has more than 400 million copies in print worldwide and celebrated 25 years in 2017. Chair de poule is one of the bestselling children's series of all-time and inspired a popular television show, as well as a feature film starring Jack Black that opened at #1 at the box office. His other popular children's books include the series Fear Street, Mostly Ghostly, The Nightmare Room, and Rotten School, and his picture books, with Marc Brown, The Little Shop of Monsters and Mary McScary. Très cher monstre

Letters to a Monster

It's a dark and stormy night, and Sophie knows that there is a MONSTER hiding under her bed. So, like any sensible child, she decides to send him a letter.

Dear Monster,

Est-ce que je grandis?

I Wonder If I'm Growing

From one of Raffi's biggest fans, and most accomplished "beluga grads", Caldecott Medalist and New York Times bestselling author-illustrator Jon Klassen, comes a dryly humorous picture book adaptation of one of the first ever original children's songs by this iconic entertainer.

Interpreting one of his favorite songs from Raffi's very first album for children, Jon Klassen invites readers to celebrate one of the little milestones and simple joys of growing up — reaching the tap! — from a kid's perspective.

"I wonder if I'm growing. My mom says yes I'm growing. But it's hard for me to see."

Jon Klassen's spare, sweetly funny art perfectly complements Raffi's wonderfully minimal, optimistic lyrics, making for a timeless new picture book classic, guaranteed to be read and sung aloud for generations to come, and to make readers of all ages smile.

RAFFI (Raffi Cavoukian) is a musician and children's performer whose wildly successful career has spanned decades and has been a household name for generations. Born in Cairo, Egypt, to Armenian parents, he began his career in 1970 as a performer in local music spots and later transitioned to performing music for children. A multiple GRAMMY® nominee and Juno winner, among other awards and recognitions, the Canadian musician, author, and advocate holds five honorary degrees and is a recipient of the Order of Canada — the country's highest civilian honour.

JON KLASSEN is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book Ce n'est pas mon chapeau won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. Jon was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and currently resides in Los Angeles.

Le petit camion bleu

Little Blue Truck

Beep! Beep! Meet Blue! Filled with truck sounds and animal noises, Le petit camion bleu is a rollicking homage to the power of friendship and the rewards of helping others.

A muddy country road is no match for this little pick-up — that is, until he gets stuck while pushing a dump truck out of the muck.

Luckily, Blue has made a pack of farm animal friends along his route. And they're willing to do whatever it takes to get their pal back on the road.

Le petit camion bleu is a joyful cacophony of animal and truck sounds that will have youngsters beeping and quacking — and begging for one more go-round!

Along the way, readers see that it pays to be kind to our animal friends. If we show a friendly respect to others, we're more likely to get help when we're, say, stuck in the muck in a truck!

ALICE SCHERTLE is a poet and author of many well-loved books for children, including the beloved #1 New York Times bestselling Le petit camion bleu series, Very Hairy Bear, Button Up!, and All You Need for a Snowman. She lives in Plainfield, Massachusetts.

JILL MCELMURRY was the illustrator of many picture books, including her own Mad About Plaid, When Otis Courted Mama by Kathi Appelt, and the bestselling Le petit camion bleu series, written by Alice Schertle. She happily divided her time between the wide landscape of New Mexico and a green island in Minnesota. Jill passed away in August 2017.

★ PRAISE

" Schertle's rhyming stanzas are succinct, and she gives readers plenty of opportunities to chime in with animal and vehicle noises; coloured, standout fonts highlight these sounds for extra effect. McElmurry's gouaches recall the heyday of Golden Books in their combination of vividness, naïveté and sweetness, and her rich palette achieves verisimilitude that is no less satisfying for being nostalgic. Les douze nuits de Noël des bonshommes de neige

Snowmen's Twelve Nights of Christmas

A classic Christmas carol told with a hilarious snowman twist, from the New York Times bestselling creators Caralyn and Mark Buehner.

The Twelve Days of Christmas has never been funnier or more chaotic as an energetic dog chases an elf, peeking penguins, scolding squirrels, and many more snowmen and creatures up a tree.

With a pitch-perfect and jaunty rhyme and illustrations chockful of fun details, this cumulative book from bestselling husband-and-wife team Caralyn and Mark Buehner begs to be read (and sung!) aloud over and over again.

CARALYN BUEHNER and MARK BUEHNER are a husband-and-wife team who have created many picture books together, Caralyn as author and Mark as illustrator. La vie secrète des bonshommes de neige and Le Noël des bonshommes de neige are both New York Times bestsellers. The parents of nine children, they live in Salt Lake City, Utah.

★ PRAISE

" The snowmen...are back. Their latest adorable outing follows the structure (and the tune) of the classic song... The art features gently rounded shapes, deep blues, glowing yellow light, and sparkling white snow. "

~ Kirkus Reviews

" [T]he Buehners spin the familiar Christmas carol into a nighttime romp through the Snowmen's familiar countryside village... The oil and acrylic illustrations are full of colour and movement, containing hidden pictures that add to the merriment. "

La peur

My Friend Fear

Fear is here! And it can be pretty scary. We may want to get rid of it quickly, but Fear can be useful. Fear helps to protect us by showing what is dangerous. Fear helps us learn and grow so that we can do scary things safely, and maybe discover they aren't scary after all. But Fear can make us anxious and stop us from doing things we want to do. The trick is to learn how to understand and live with Fear.

In her brand-new picture book, beloved children's book creator Elise Gravel takes on an emotion that's not as scary as it may seem: fear itself! Elise shows us how to tell the difference between the fear that's there to protect us and the fear that takes over, and how to live harmoniously with this big feeling. Using her trademark monster characters and gentle humour, Elise brings a fun spin to a tricky topic that affects us all.

ELISE GRAVEL has won a Governor General's Award for illustration, the Vicky Metcalf Award for Literature for Young People, the Rights and Freedoms Award from the Quebec Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse, two Applied Arts Awards and a Grafika Award. She also was short-listed for Mr. Christie's Book Award. She has written and illustrated over thirty books for including Pas moi, Tout le monde!, and C'est mon corps!. Elise lives in Montreal, Quebec.

Cupicochon : À la rescousse de Noël

Cupig Saves Christmas

The New York Times bestselling Valentine's Day pig is back with a Christmas adventure! When Santa is sick and can't deliver presents, it's up to Cupicochon to save Christmas!

On a chilly December night, Cupicochon receives an urgent call from a sick and sniffly Santa Claus. After thorough instruction, she's ready to fill in for Santa Claus and don the red hat and suit.

But when delivering presents proves to be harder than she thought, Cupicochon will have to learn about the real meaning of Christmas if she's going to fix her mistakes and save the day!

With clever rhyming text and comically expressive art, Cupicochon : À la rescousse de Noël is a hilarious and sweet Christmas adventure.

CLAIRE TATTERSFIELD is the New York Times bestselling author of Cupicochon, illustrated by Rob Sayegh Jr. An avid writer of satire, she found that her work on her college's satire newspaper translated phenomenally to writing books for children, so she did a heel-turn and found herself in the children's book world. A native of Nashville, Tennessee, she now lives in Brooklyn, New York, with her partner and far too many books.

ROB SAYEGH JR. is a former toy designer turned New York Times bestselling children's book illustrator. He is the author/illustrator of Love Tails, and the illustrator of I'm Not Scared, You're Scared!, Cupicochon, Arlo Draws an Octopus, and Slow Down, Tumbleweed. Combining real-world textures and photography with his illustrations, Rob enjoys creating worlds and characters that make people of all ages smile and giggle. When he is not doodling or writing, he enjoys collecting vintage toys, being an official snack taste-tester, and falling in love with every dog he meets. He currently lives in San Francisco with his family.

★ PRAISE

"Tattersfield's rhymes, which tumble along merrily, add momentum to Cupicochon's adventure, while Sayegh's artwork, rendered in collage and digital painting, oozes sweetness and charm. Another holiday enlivened by this bumbling, lovable piggy protagonist. "

~ Kirkus Reviews

"Sayegh's playful, bright illustrations add humour to every spread, expanding on Cupicochon's mix ups, which include tidying up the snack left for Santa and launching an arrow at a giant inflatable lawn decoration. The combination of Cupicochon's over confident approach to the task at hand and her well intentioned bumbling make her a charming holiday hero. A fun and festive choice for holiday collections. "

Magie d'hiver à Bramble Falls

Falling Like Snow

Gilmore Girls meets Jenny Han in this swoony YA holiday romance, where one girl must juggle planning her town's first-ever winter festival and untangling her complicated feelings for her loyal best friend and the irresistible hockey bad boy.

After Bramble Falls' wildly successful Falling Leaves Festival, Sloane Sullivan is looking forward to kicking back and marathoning Nora Ephron movies with her best friend, Asher. But they barely make it through Sleepless in Seattle before Sloane's mom calls an emergency tourism department meeting; it's all hands on deck — Bramble Falls is having its first ever Falling Snow Festival!

Sloane may be tired, but she's also excited; after all, Christmas is the best time of year. And she'll have her whole crew by her side, including her cousin, Ellis, and of course, Asher. But when hot hockey-bro Micah catches Sloane's attention, she finds herself a bit distracted. Not to mention that Micah's interest is starting to make her feel all kinds of ways about Asher, who she's always thought was firmly in the friend zone. Confused and a little overwhelmed, Sloane needs a little Christmas magic more than ever this year to pull off the festival and figure out exactly where her heart lies.

MISTY WILSON is the author of Retour à Bramble Falls and Play Like a Girl, her award-winning debut middle grade graphic memoir. Misty is a teacher, registered nurse, and a voracious reader. She loves binge-watching television series and adores rom-coms. She lives in Northeast Ohio with her husband and their two daughters.

Coffret Mini Chat et son club BD : Tomes 1 à 3

Cat Kid Comic Club 1-3 Box Set

In the Cat Kid Comic Club, Li'l Petey, Flippy, and Molly help twenty-one spirited, funny, and talented baby frogs learn to express themselves through comics. The adventures unwind with mishaps and hilarity as the creative baby frogs experience the mistakes and progress that come with practice and persistence.

The Cat Kid Comic Club Collection includes the first, second, and third graphic novels in the Cat Kid Comic Club series: Mini Chat et son club BD, Mini Chat et son club BD : N° 2 - Perspectives, and Mini Chat et son club BD : N° 3 - Objectif.

Author and illustrator Dav Pilkey breaks new ground, using a variety of artistic techniques and media — including acrylic paints, coloured pencils, Japanese calligraphy, photography, collage, gouache, and watercolours — to bridge the storylines and portray the frogs' perspectives and purpose.

When DAV PILKEY was a kid, he was diagnosed with ADHD and dyslexia. Dav was so disruptive in class that his teachers made him sit out in the hallway every day. Luckily, Dav loved to draw and make up stories. He spent his time in the hallway creating his own original comic books, the very first adventures of Dog Man and Captain Underpants. In the second grade, Dav's teacher ripped up his comics and told him he couldn't spend the rest of his life making silly books. Fortunately, Dav was not a very good listener.

Un refuge pour ma tristesse

A Shelter for Sadness

This poignant and heartwarming story explores the many faces of sadness and addresses the importance of mental health in a child-friendly way.

A small boy creates a shelter for his sadness so that he can visit it whenever he needs to, and the two of them can cry, talk, or just sit. The boy knows that one day his sadness may come out of the shelter, and together they will look out at the world and see how beautiful it is.

In this timely consideration of emotional wellbeing, Anne Booth has created a beautiful depiction of allowing time and attention for difficult feelings. Stunningly atmospheric illustrations by David Litchfield personify sadness as a living being, allowing young readers to more easily connect with the story's themes of emotional literacy.

ANNE BOOTH lives in a lovely English village with her husband and four children — and the children's grandfather across the road. They have two hens called Poppy and Anastasia and two dogs called Timmy and Ben.

DAVID LITCHFIELD is the author-illustrator of the award-winning L'ours qui jouait du piano, nominated for the Kate Greenaway award, and Le magasin de jouets des frères Noël. He is also the illustrator of numerous picture books, including Pépin et Coco, written by Alex Latimer, and Moi, la Terre, Moi, l'océan, and Notre planète : Rien ne vaut la Terre, all written by Stacy McAnulty. He lives in Bedford in the United Kingdom.

★ PRAISE

" Booth and Litchfield propose not only accepting sadness, but actually trying to take care of it by building a shelter and keeping it safe.... The art work is simple but evocative, in an atmospheric palette befitting the story's content. This would be an excellent conversation starter for readers who are grappling with strong emotions or for lessons on social-emotional learning. "

★ PRAISE

" Short, punchy text juices the tale's momentum, while portraits trace the miller's daughter's journey from frog-catching child to regal royal and back again in this haunting tale about the power of knowing someone's name. "

~ Publishers Weekly, starred review

" ...Theirs is a pleasing alchemy, with Barnett employing conversational language anchored in understated humour and Ellis' rich gouache illustrations evoking both wood-block prints and Renaissance portraiture. The original story, as told by the Brothers Grimm, isn't much altered here; rather, it is filled out with creative details that enrich the narrative and give context to the life of the woman at the center of the whole debacle...Ellis sets the historical tone with her fantastic artwork...the landscapes are decidedly lush... "

~ Booklist, starred review

" Two acclaimed creators retell a fairy-tale classic. Employing a conversational style, Barnett offers a fresh and immensely entertaining take on an old story... Deeply familiar but infused with 21st-century smarts; expect cries for repeated reads. "

Sauve qui peut!

Round and Round

When Grandpa has to take Xave to the doctor, chaos ensues!

Mom is busy with the twins, so Grandpa volunteers to take Xave to the doctor. But when she sees the needle, she runs right out the backdoor into the park next door, with Grandpa in hot pursuit. Soon he is joined by the local crossing guard, then some passing firefighters, and more, all running round and round the park trying to catch Xave.

This funny new story features characters based on Robert Munsch and his own grandchild, with Michael Martchenko's colourful, energetic illustrations!

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with nearly one hundred books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac, On partage tout!, La tempête du siècle, and Je t'aimerai toujours. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021 he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO has illustrated dozens of books, and is most famous for his work with Robert Munsch, including Tes chaussettes sentent la mouffette!, Maquillage à gogo, and On partage tout!. He lives in Burlington, Ontario.

When DAV PILKEY was a kid, he was diagnosed with ADHD and dyslexia. Dav was so disruptive in class that his teachers made him sit out in the hallway every day. Luckily, Dav loved to draw and make up stories. He spent his time in the hallway creating his own original comic books, the very first adventures of Dog Man and Captain Underpants. In the second grade, Dav's teacher ripped up his comics and told him he couldn't spend the rest of his life making silly books. Fortunately, Dav was not a very good listener.

MOTOJIRO has been creating manga for over thirty years. His work includes a wide range of stories, including the Time Warp series and the Battle Brave series (Asahi Shimbun Publications). Motojiro also creates manga for educational materials for elementary and junior high students. He is a member of the Japan Cartoonists Association and lives in Japan.
