When I was very young, my mother fled with me to my grandparents' farm in the snowbelt. We were running from my father. My situation was never as extreme as my hero Cameron's, but I often wondered why she locked the screen door when he came to visit and sometimes guessed.

The Dogs is a psychological thriller, a YA Turn of the Screw, about the power of secrets and imagination and the struggle to know and live with truth. But it's also my most personal book; a coming home. Writing Cameron, with all his tics, was like writing myself. Like Cameron, I was lucky to have a mom who loved me more than anything and, when I grew up, a stepfather I will cherish forever.

—Allan Stratton

Advance praise for The Dogs:

"It's about ghosts and terrifying danger and going mad all at once. I didn't know what was real and what was imagined until the very last page. I loved it!" —Melvin Burgess, author of Carnegie Medal winner Junk

"In a novel both harrowing and hopeful, Stratton winds twin tales of abuse and hatred and madness."
—Gary Schmidt, author of Newbery Honor winner The Wednesday Wars

"Brilliant, fast-paced and eerie. It kept me guessing right to the end."
—Joseph Delaney, author of The Last Apprentice series

Praise for Curse of the Dream Witch:

Winner, CLA Book of the Year for Children Award, 2014

Honour Book, OLA Silver Birch Award – Fiction, 2014

Nominee, Monica Hughes Award for Science Fiction and Fantasy, 2014

Nominee, Red Cedar Award (BC Young Readers' Choice), 2015

Nominee, Rocky Mountain Book Award (Alberta Children's Choice), 2015

"A page-turning middle grade fairy-tale adventure about courage, friendship and loyalty that will charm adult and child readers from start to finish." —CLA Award Jury

"Unlikely friendships are formed, fears are faced, and evil is overcome in this adventure that is fast-paced and filled with the supernatural." —CM: Canadian Review of Materials

The Dogs

By Allan Stratton

A chilling tale from one of Canada's best-known authors, Governor General's Award nominee Allan Stratton.

Cameron and his mom have been on the run for five years. His father is hunting them. At least, that's what Cameron's been told.

When they settle in an isolated farmhouse, Cameron starts to see and hear things that aren't possible. Soon he's questioning everything he thought he knew — including his own sanity.

What's hiding in the night? Buried in the past? Cameron must uncover the dark secrets before they tear him apart.

ALLAN STRATTON is the internationally acclaimed author of Chanda's Secrets, a Michael L. Printz Honour Book whose film adaptation (Life, Above All) won the François Chalais Prize at the Cannes International Film Festival. His most recent novel, Curse of the Dream Witch, won the CLA Book of the Year for Children Award, and The Grave Robber's Apprentice was nominated for the Governor General's Literary Award. Allan lives in Toronto, Ontario with his partner, four cats, and numerous fish. Visit him online at www.allanstratton.com.

Tom Gates: Extra Special Treats (not)

By L. Pichon

Tom Gates: overachiever? We never thought we'd see the day!

Tom's latest goal is to earn a Star Pupil Badge. Marcus Mildrew has one, and Tom wants one so he can stay in the library at lunchtime and catch up on his comics. But it's not going to be easy. To earn the badge, he'll have to get his homework in on time . . . and as always, his life is full of distractions.

A new girl has moved in next door. A girl who hates him and keeps pulling faces. His grandparents are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary and Uncle Kevin thinks it would be a great idea to get a family portrait taken. Tom doesn't. And as usual, Delia is being very grumpy.

How will Tom ever get his hands on that Star Pupil Badge?

Sarah Mlynowski's charming series puts

Now in paperback!

Whatever After #5: Bad Hair Day

By Sarah Mlynowski

Abby and Jonah are stuck in yet another fairy tale! This time, the magic mirror sucks them into the story of Rapunzel. When Rapunzel lets down her hair for the siblings to climb, Jonah accidentally shreds it with his soccer cleats.

But that's nothing a stylish, TOTALLY professional haircut by Abby can't solve, right? Wrong! Now this tale is all tangled up. Can Abby and Jonah turn this bad hair day around before it's too late?

Praise for Whatever After #1: Fairest of All:

CCBC Best Books for Kids and Teens

"Sarah Mlynowski's spunky heroine injects some girl-power into Snow White for a wonderful reading adventure the whole family will enjoy. Tons of fractured fairy tale fun!"

—Meg Cabot, author of Allie Finkle's Rules for Girls and The Princess Diaries

"An uproariously funny read. The swift pace of the tale and non-stop action . . . will enchant readers from the first page." —Kirkus Reviews

"This delightful kick-off to the series demonstrates Mlynowski's prowess at writing for middle-graders." —Publishers Weekly

a modern spin on classic fairy tales!

Whatever After #6: Cold as Ice

By Sarah Mlynowski

Even though my brother and I had decided to stay away from the magic mirror, our puppy had other plans — he bounded right in. What choice did we have but to go in after him?

When we land in a winter wonderland, we realize we must be in the story of the Snow Queen. And this fairy tale is nothing like the movie. This Snow Queen is super mean, and she turns our dog into an ice sculpture!

So we have to:

- Defrost our furry friend
- Ride a very chatty reindeer
- Learn to ice-skate
- Escape from a band of robbers

And if we're not careful . . . we could end up frozen ourselves!

Spooky, funny, and fresh, Sam Fisher's bonds and rivalries unique to siblings

Scare Scape

By Sam Fisher

Toxic Vapor Worms. Shark Hounds. King-Crab Spiders. Two-Headed Mutant Rodents.

These are just a few of the beasts featured in the pages of Scare Scape, the creepiest comic book around. They're enough to give most kids nightmares.

Morton Clay isn't easily frightened, though. He's not afraid of the dark, or grossed-out by bugs and slugs. But when Morton and his siblings, James and Melissa, find an old stone statue buried in their yard, they discover that there is good reason to be afraid . . .

Mystery, humour, and menacing monsters await you in Scare Scape!

Praise for Scare Scape:

Scare Scape II

By Sam Fisher

When the town of Dimvale is overrun with two-headed mutant rats, Morton Clay knows that dark magic is to blame. And when his classmates get their hands on impossible gadgets like X-ray specs and anti-gravity lasers, he realizes the trouble is just beginning.

Morton and his siblings, James and Melissa, are the only ones who can stop the chaos. But should they, if it means eliminating magic from the world? As Morton begins to fight magic with magic, he's not so sure . . .

Each book includes an illustrated monster guide!

SAM FISHER worked as a scenic carpenter on movie sets before quitting his day job to become a writer and teacher. A native of England, Sam now lives with his wife and children in Halifax, Nova Scotia where he teaches screenwriting and film production at NSCAD University. Scare Scape was his first novel. A Hanging Offence

By Don Cummer

The sequel to Brothers at War finds best friends Jacob and Eli on opposite sides of the battlefield as the War of 1812 erupts.

Jacob and Eli may be blood brothers, but they are on opposite sides in the battle of Queenston Heights during the War of 1812. While Jacob joins John Norton's Mohawk band fighting with the British-Canadian side, Eli fights with the Americans.

The Canadians win the day, but the victory comes at a great cost: the death of General Brock. Eli is captured and jailed. Because he swore the oath of allegiance to the Crown before he left Canada, his return with the invaders makes him a traitor. He is charged with high treason — a hanging offence. Can Jacob save his friend from the gallows?

Praise for Brothers at War:

Nominee, Geoffrey Bilson Award for Historical Fiction for Young People, 2014

CCBC Best Books for Kids and Teens

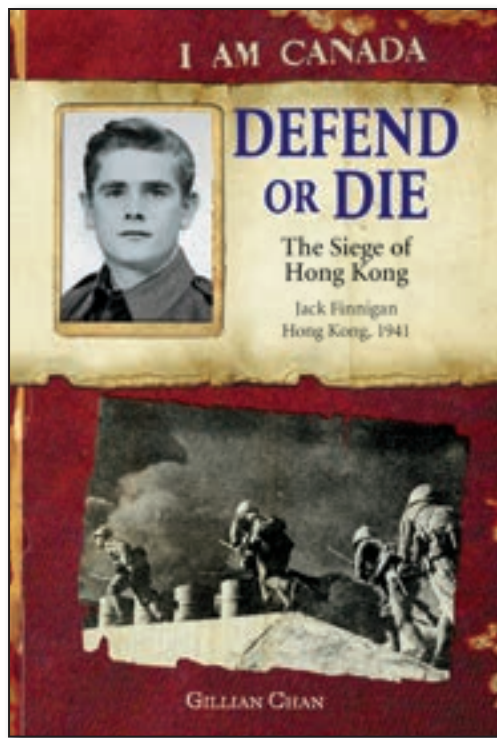

"A wonderful historical story. The reader will feel invested in the characters and enjoy the rise and fall of tension as the story progresses through an ebb and pull of loyalties and intrigue." —CM: Canadian Review of Materials

"Readers gain an excellent understanding of the politics and events leading up to the war . . . The issues at hand are far from black-and-white, and Cummer doesn't oversimplify or sugar-coat these problems." —Canadian Children's Book News

9 781443 139083

DON CUMMER was born and raised in Calgary, Alberta, but now makes his home in Ottawa, Ontario, where he is a professional speechwriter. His short story "The Burying Grounds" won The Writers' Union of Canada Writing for Children Competition in 2012. Brothers at War was his first novel in a planned trilogy.

I AM CANADA

Defend or Die
The Siege of Hong Kong
Jack Finnigan, Hong Kong, 1941
By Gillian Chan

A captivating and rarely told World War II story: that of the Canadian troops sent to defend Hong Kong from the invading Japanese.

Nineteen-year-old Jack Finnigan is a born troublemaker. He has grown up defying authority and leaves his small town to enlist in the Royal Rifles, expecting adventure . . . and not afraid of danger. Little does he know what awaits across the Pacific, where his untested regiment is being sent to defend the vulnerable British colony of Hong Kong.

The Royal Rifles and the Winnipeg Grenadiers, many of them young and untrained, quickly find themselves in the thick of battle as the Japanese attack on Sunday, December 7, 1941 (the same day as the bombing of Pearl Harbor). After nearly a month of fighting, the colony falls to the Japanese.

Jack writes about the fierce battles during those hard weeks, the surrender and capture of his unit, and his brutal time in the POW camp. In those desperate battles and horrendous conditions, he befriends a once-despised sergeant and learns to work with him in order to survive.

GILLIAN CHAN is the author of I Am Canada: A Call to Battle, a Geoffrey Bilson Award finalist, and Dear Canada: An Ocean Apart, which won the Arts Hamilton Children's Book Award. She has written seven books and has been shortlisted for the Governor General's Award and the Mr. Christie's Book Award, as well as many other national and international awards for young readers. Gillian lives in Dundas, Ontario. Connect with her online at www.gillianchan.com.

These favourite Munsch stories are now board books revised for toddlers!

Deep Snow

By Robert Munsch
Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

Ali and Kate are out snowmobiling with their dad when Ali yells “STOP!” She can’t wait any more; she just has to jump in the snow.

Her sister Kate warns her that it’s not a good idea because this is deep, deep, deeeeeeeep snow — but Ali stands up on the seat, gives her best yell, and jumps out as far as she can!

Ali disappears down into a deep hole in the snow, and when her sister and dad try to get her out, things just get worse and worse and worse . . .

Deep Snow was inspired by sisters Ali and Kate in Goose Bay, Labrador.

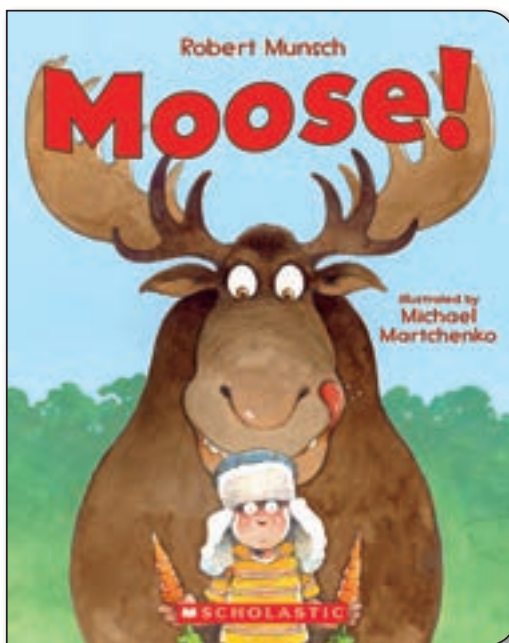

Moose!

By Robert Munsch
Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

Luke gets up early one Saturday morning and finds a moose in the backyard. He wakes up his dad, and then his mom, who each declare that “moose never come on the farm!”

Luke feeds the moose carrots and decides to keep it as a pet. When his parents finally see the moose for themselves, mom tries to shoo it away with a broom — but the moose eats it. Dad tries to scare it away with a hose — but the moose just takes a nice bath. Finally, his sister comes up with a surprising solution to this unusual problem!

Moose! was inspired by a young boy from Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia.

Two by Two

By Barbara Reid

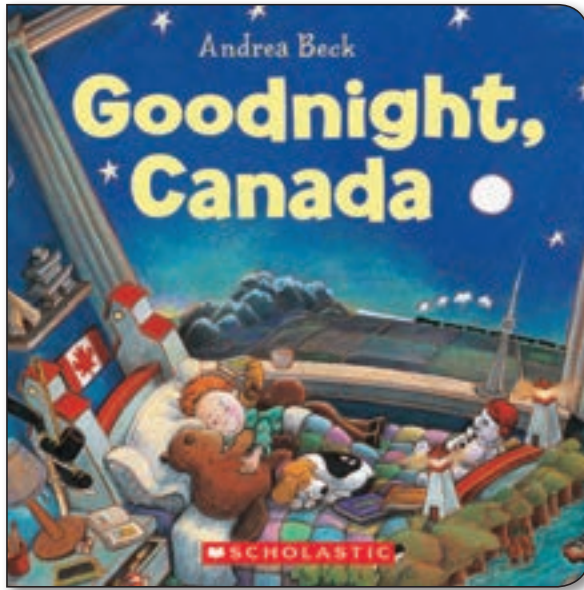

To save his family from the big flood, Noah builds a boat. It has to be HUGE, because two of every animal are coming to stay for forty days and forty nights. First in a trickle, then in a flood, animals of every colour and kind make their way into the hold. Bees and boas, camels and cats, every pair finds a place in these pages.

No ark since Noah's own has shown such colour and diversity of life as that of Barbara Reid! Two by Two has been a classic for 20 years, and it is now available in a chunky board book format for the youngest readers.

BARBARA REID is well known to children, parents, and teachers alike for her vibrant Plasticine illustrations. She is the author and illustrator of many Canadian favourites, including Sing a Song of Mother Goose, The Subway Mouse, and Perfect Snow. Barb has received every major Canadian children's book award, and in 2012 she was named to the Order of Ontario and awarded the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal. Barb lives in Toronto, Ontario. Goodnight, Canada

By Andrea Beck

Award-winning Canadian author and illustrator Andrea Beck has created a unique gift for parents as they wind their little ones down for bedtime. Goodnight, Canada inspires a sense of community as a child who lives in Newfoundland lies in bed wondering about other children across the country. He quietly bids a goodnight to them all, and to Canada itself, province by province, territory by territory.

From the quiet wheat fields of Saskatchewan to a fisherman's wharf in Nova Scotia, the colourful scenes celebrate the diversity of Canada's people and key features of each province. So many details brighten each page, bringing Canada to life and creating a world children will want to return to again and again!

ANDREA BECK is the author and illustrator of the popular book series Elliot Moose, which inspired a TV series. She also wrote and illustrated the Pierre le Poof series and Good Morning, Canada. She has been shortlisted twice for the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award for Illustration. Andrea lives in Unionville, Ontario and you can connect with her online at www.andreabeck.com.

Pig the Pug

By Aaron Blabey

A rollicking, rhyming story about a pug that just won't share!

Meet the greediest pug in the world. Pig is ill-tempered, rude, and unreasonable. He lives with Trevor the sausage dog, who would like nothing better than to play with Pig's toys.

When Trevor asks Pig to share, Pig replies, "They're mine. GO AWAY!" and gathers all his toys into one great big pile. Pig climbs on top of his stash to taunt Trevor, but the pile gives way and he goes tumbling down . . . ending up in a full-body cast!

Will Pig the Pug learn his lesson at last?

AARON BLABEY was a successful actor for 15 years, as well as an artist, before becoming an author and illustrator of children's books. His first book, Pearl Barley and Charlie Parsley, won the 2008 Children's Book Council of Australia Book of the Year Award. Aaron has been included on the Smithsonian Institute's Notable Book List and was a National Literacy Ambassador for Australia in 2012. He lives in Sydney, Australia with his wife and two sons.

The Little Knight Who Battled the Rain

By Gilles Tibo

Illustrated by Geneviève Després

An endearing tale about finding creative ways to confront your fears.

In a curious little kingdom on top of a forest lived a little knight. He loved cats and chocolate cake. He wasn't afraid of mice or the dark . . . but he was terrified of the rain!

One day, a huge storm descended on the village. The little knight took refuge in the fortress, and he stayed there for long, long time. But he knew that, for the sake of his subjects, he would have to get up the courage to confront his fears.

Pippa Morgan's Diary

By Annie Kelsey

Pippa Morgan is a small girl with a BIG imagination.

Life is not going at all well for ten-year-old Pippa Morgan. Her best friend has moved away and her parents have decided to get a divorce . . . all in the same week. Then she accidentally signs up to the school talent show in an attempt to impress the coolest girl in school, even though her singing voice sounds like a cat being strangled.

Pippa's mom tells her to start keeping a diary to "help her to feel better about everything." Pippa doesn't see how writing about her cataclysmic life could possibly make it any better, and she immediately labels it her DIARY OF DOOM! Will things get any better for the dramatic Pippa Morgan? You'll have to read her super-secret diary to find out!

9 781443 142755

ANNIE KELSEY is inspired by her own teenage disasters, which she used to record in a diary much like Pippa's. Annie now lives a not-quite-so-disastrous life in London, England with her family.
