Tu ne manqueras jamais d'amour

You Can Never Run Out of Love

You can't measure love in a bucket or cup. You don't have to worry you'll use it all up.

Because love's not a game where you have to keep score. Whenever you give some, you'll always have more.

A heart-warming and funny tale about the different kinds of love, and how no matter how much love you give you can never run out. A wonderful story to be read aloud during story time. The ideal book for Valentine's Day or to share with a loved one any day of the week!

HELEN DOCHERTY has spent most of her career as a language teacher, most recently specializing in Spanish. She lives in Bristol, England.

ALI PYE has wanted to be an illustrator ever since she was little, when she drew stories and stuck the pages together to make little books. But it took her a few years and a stint as a copy editor before she started drawing professionally in 2010. She lives in London.

In this hilariously spooky story by Geisel Award-winning author and illustrator Ethan Long, even the scariest of monsters have true feelings.

Thelma la licorne

Thelma the Unicorn

Thelma is an ordinary pony who dreams of being a unicorn. And through a little bit of chance, and a strange dash of pink glitter-coloured fate, her dream comes true! Suddenly Thelma is transformed into a unicorn and becomes an international sensation.

In this adorable picture book from Aaron Blabey (creator of Carlos le carlin), kids will laugh at Thelma's transformation from ordinary pony to glitzy unicorn and back to pony, while parents will appreciate the underlying lesson of staying true to oneself.

AARON BLABEY was a successful actor for 15 years, as well as an artist, before becoming an author and illustrator of children's books. His first book, Pearl Barley and Charlie Parsley, won the 2008 Children's Book Council of Australia Book of the Year Award. Le carnaval de Malaika

Malaika's Winter Carnival

Malaika is happy to be reunited with her mother, but it means moving to Canada, where everything is different. Will she be able to adjust to her new family and environment?

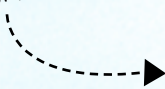

Nadia L. Hohn's prose tells a warm story about the importance of family, especially when adjusting to a new home.

NADIA L. HOHN is a writer, musician and educator. The manuscript of Le costume de Malaika, her first picture book, won the Helen Isobel Sissons Canadian Children's Story Award. She lives in Toronto, where she teaches French, music and the arts at an alternative elementary school.

Irene lives in Toronto, where she is currently working on new paintings, illustrations and picture books.

Lune d'hiver

Snowball Moon

On a quiet snowy night, the lights go out, and the bright snowball moon outside illuminates everything. With charming, retro illustrations and simple rhyming text, kids will love this warm winter picture book!

FRAN CANNON SLAYTON spent her childhood growing up in Manassas, Virginia, hoping for snow days off from school. After graduating from the University of Virginia, Fran worked as a prosecutor and legal publisher before becoming a children's book author. She lives in Virginia.

How will Sébastien get out of this sticky situation?

Hop Into Bed

A bouncy, hoppy frog, full of irrepressible energy, won't go to sleep. He just wants to jump. And jump and jump and jump. Finally, everyone else goes to sleep but he keeps jumping until the sun comes up. The next day, he sleeps through his whole day—even band practice and a field trip to the zoo. The only time he gets any zip back is at bedtime when his parents tell him to hop into bed. That he does, "with a triple-flip and a double-twist!"

Perfect for every child who's reluctant at bedtime, with a gentle reminder that rest is needed and a new day awaits. All served with a big dose of humour and joy, and with the distinctive style of Nicholas Oldland.

Les petits héros

Brave

Superheroes are brave. But they aren't the only ones...

Kids are brave every day. When they are told they are too little, but accomplish something big. When they face something uncertain, whether a thunderstorm or a hospital visit. When they stand up for what's right, even when it means facing consequences.

Thoughtful text from Stacy McAnulty paired with vibrant illustrations from Joanne Lew-Vriethoff encourage kids to be brave in all the ways they can: trying new things, speaking their mind, confronting bullies, and more. This book will inspire kids to follow their hearts and to have courage, no matter the situation.

Une famille... c'est une famille

A Family Is a Family Is a Family

When a teacher asks the children in her class to think about what makes their families special, the answers are all different in many ways — but the same in the one way that matters most of all.

One child is worried that her family is just too different to explain, but listens as her classmates talk about what makes their families special. As they describe who they live with and who loves them — family of every shape, size and every kind of relation — the child realizes that as long as her family is full of caring people, it is special.

A warm and whimsical look at many types of families, written by award-winning author Sara O'Leary, with quirky and sweet illustrations by Qin Leng.

SARA O'LEARY is a writer of fiction for both adults and children. She is the author of the award-winning series of Henry books and This Is Sadie, illustrated by Julie Morstad, and You Are One, illustrated by Karen Klassen. A graduate of the UBC Creative Writing Program, she has taught screenwriting and writing for children at Concordia University in Montreal.

QIN LENG is the illustrator of many picture books for children, including Hana Hashimoto, Sixth Violin by Chieri Uegaki, which was nominated for the Governor General's Award. Qin was born in Shanghai, and now lives and works as a designer and illustrator in Toronto, Ontario.

Sleepy Bird

It's bedtime, but Bird wants to play! Sound familiar?

Bird's friends are getting ready for bed, but Bird isn't ready to sleep. His wings want to flap. His legs want to run. All of him wants to play. He tries to coax his pals into joining his fun, but they are tired and want to sleep. They offer to settle Bird with their bedtime rituals—reading a book, cuddling a stuffed animal, singing a lullaby—but he just ramps up with every suggestion.

Finally, after exhausting all possibilities and tiring himself with a signature melt down, he collapses into slumber...at least for a little while.

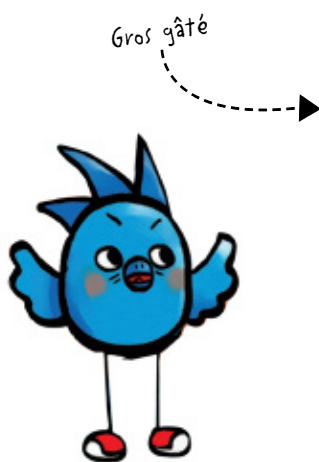

Spirited kids and exhausted parents will laugh their way to happy dreams in this hilarious and relatable take on bedtime.

JEREMY TANKARD has illustrated numerous picture books including, his own Gros grognon and Gros bobo. He lives in Canada with his family.

Parfois je suis un renard

Sometimes I Feel Like a Fox

In this introduction to the Anishinaabe tradition of totem animals, young children explain why they identify with different creatures such as a deer, beaver or moose. Delightful illustrations show the children wearing masks representing their chosen animal, while the few lines of text on each page work as a series of simple poems throughout the book.

In a brief author's note, Danielle Daniel explains the importance of totem animals in Anishinaabe culture and how they can also act as animal guides for young children seeking to understand themselves and others.

DANIELLE DANIEL is an author and artist whose first picture book, Parfois je suis un renard, won the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award and was shortlisted for the First Nation Communities Read Award for aboriginal literature. A former elementary school teacher, Danielle is pursuing an MFA in Creative Writing through the University of British Columbia. Danielle lives in Sudbury, Ontario.

The Tale of Angelino Brown

Grumpy old, bus-driving Bert has had enough. No more bus stops! No more passengers! But during his typical drive, Bert feels a flutter in his pocket, and out comes a small angel. So starts the tale of Angelino, a young boy (and angel) under the care of Bert and his wife Betty. At school, Angelino is the talk of all the students. What a wonder! But Mrs. Mole is not so sure. Nor is Professor Smellie. Or the mysterious man in black who claims to be a School Inspector. Then there's Basher Malone—big, lumbering Basher Malone. He really doesn't like Angelino. And it looks like he's out to get him...

La princesse de l'eau claire

The Water Princess

With its wide sky and warm earth, Princess Gie Gie's kingdom is a beautiful land. But clean drinking water is scarce in her small African village. Every morning, she rises before the sun to make the long journey to the well. Instead of a crown, she wears a heavy pot to collect the water. After the voyage home, after boiling the water to drink and clean with, Gie Gie thinks of the trip that tomorrow will bring. And she dreams. She dreams of a day when her village will have cool, crystal-clear water of its own.

Inspired by the childhood of Burkina Faso-born model Georgie Badiel, La princesse de l'eau claire brings together the exceptional talents of Susan Verde and Peter H. Reynolds in this stunning picture book.

SUSAN VERDE is the author of several picture books, including The Museum, You and Me, and Le yoga, c'est moi. After spending a number of years working as an elementary school teacher, Susan now writes and teaches kids' yoga in East Hampton, New York, where she lives with her three children.

Est-ce possible de toucher un arc-en-ciel?

Can You Touch a Rainbow?

The world around us never ceases to inspire questions about its origins, its processes and the changes we see happening every day. This book sets out to answer the kind of questions that have fascinated children (and adults!) for generations. Why does the sun set? How are snowflakes made? Why is the sea salty? Why do volcanoes explode?

Each fun question leads to an important scientific fact, conveyed in language that's easy to relate to and illustrated with vibrant cartoon-style illustrations.

N° 1 - Les aventures de Narval et Gelato

#1: A Narwhal and Jelly Book

Narval is a happy-go-lucky narwhal. Gelato is a no-nonsense jellyfish. The two might not have a lot in common, but they do they love waffles, parties and adventures. Join Narval and Gelato as they discover the whole wide ocean together.

A wonderfully silly early graphic novel series featuring three short stories. In the first, Gelato learns that Narval is a really good friend. In the second, Narval and Gelato form their own pod of awesomeness with their ocean friends. And finally, Narval and Gelato read the best book ever—even though it doesn't have any words...or pictures!

A lovely nod to the joys of friendship, the benefits of working together and the power of imagination.

Scènes épiques de ma vie de génie incompris

Scenes from the Epic Life of a Total Genius

Arthur and Robbie have called a truce now that the writing contest and school play are over... but plans go astray when Arthur's new girlfriend Anila gets jealous of his friendship with Kennedy. And then there's that little problem of the movie camera Arthur and Robbie borrowed to film their upcoming blockbuster movie.

As Arthur's life goes off the rails all over again, laughs for the reader are right on track. Emails, doodles, texts, newspaper articles, AV Club rules (which Arthur and Robbie usually break) give the story the same engaging look as its prequel.

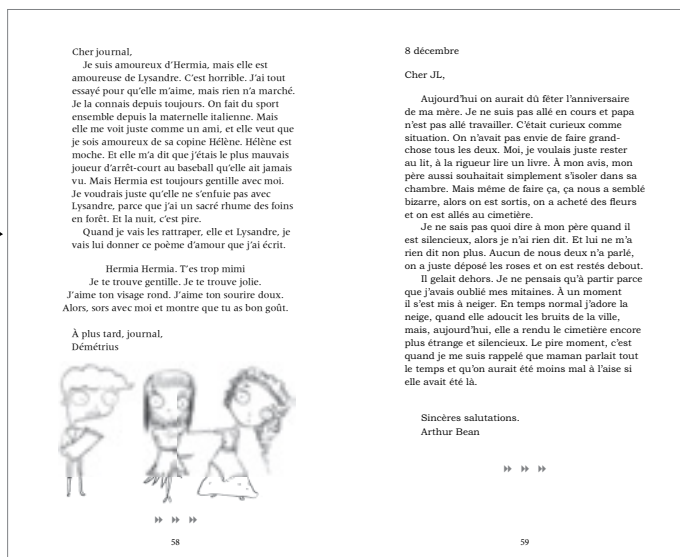

STACY MATSON has worked in a theatre program on Parliament Hill and written theatre pieces for the Glenbow Museum and for the All-Nations Theatre in Calgary. She recently completed her Master of Arts in Children's Literature at the University of British Columbia. This is her second novel in a planned trilogy. Stacy lives in Vancouver, BC.

Spirit Animals: Fall of the Beasts

N° 3 - Titre à venir

#3: The Return

Something ancient and evil has awoken from beneath the world of Erdas. Shrouded in shadow and older than memory, just a sliver of its power can destroy with a touch. Even the spirit animal bond, the sacred link between humans and animals that keeps Erdas in balance, is under threat.

Four young heroes, Conor, Abéké, Meilin, and Rollan, are determined to stop it. Together with their spirit animals, they embark on a desperate journey that takes them deep underground and to the far corners of the world. As friends and allies fall around them, the four have no choice but to push forward and confront this darkness. If they stop to look back, they'll see the truth: Evil already has them surrounded.
