Rends-moi mon papa!

Give Me Back My Dad!

Cheryl and her dad go ice fishing, but it turns out that the fish are pretty smart. They are trying to catch the people right back! In the end, Cheryl and her father bring home something really good...and it's not a fish at all!

This story was inspired by a young girl and her dad in Rigolet, Labrador, with whom Robert Munsch went ice fishing. They were NOT caught by any fish that day, but a fun, whimsical story was born!

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than eighty books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac, On partage tout!, La tempête du siècle, and Love You Forever. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021 he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO has illustrated dozens of books, and is most famous for his work with Robert Munsch, including Tes chaussettes sentent la mouffette!, Maquillage à gogo, and On partage tout! He lives in Burlington, Ontario.

10 faits étonnants sur les capybaras

10 Shocking Facts About Capybaras

Acclaimed author-illustrator Mélanie Watt introduces us to an incredible animal: the capybara!

We've all heard of capybaras, we all love capybaras, but how much do we know about them, really? Dive into this fact-packed picture book and uncover the secrets (some cute, some curious, and some downright appalling) of these lovable oversized rodents.

For as fascinating as these animals are, there's one extra-shocking fact that this capybara does NOT want you to know! Will the truth come out in the end?

Funny and irreverent, this new picture book from the creator of Chester and Frisson l'écureuil teaches some very interesting animal facts and will have readers laughing the whole way through.

The author-illustrator MÉLANIE WATT, born in Trois-Rivières, has won prestigious awards for her work, including the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Children's Book Award, the Blue Spruce Award, and the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Illustrator's Award, all for her series Frisson l'écureuil. She is the bestselling creative genius behind many beloved picture books for children, including the Frisson l'écureuil series and Les aventures de Frisson, the Chester series, and La mouche dans l'aspirateur.

Miroir, miroir, qui sera Blanche-Neige?

Not Quite Snow White

Tameika is a girl who belongs on the stage. She loves to act, sing, and dance — and she's pretty good at it, too. So when her school announces their Snow White musical, Tameika auditions for the lead princess role.

But the other kids think she's "not quite" right to play the role.

They whisper, they snicker, and they glare.

Will Tameika let their harsh words be her final curtain call?

Miroir, miroir, qui sera Blanche-Neige? is a delightful and inspiring picture book that highlights the importance of self-confidence while taking an earnest look at what happens when that confidence is shaken or lost. Tameika encourages us all to let our magic shine.

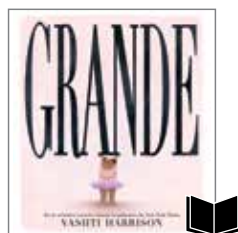

ASHLEY FRANKLIN is a professional chaser — of ideas, dreams, and, most often, her kids. She is the author of Not Quite Snow White and a contributor to Once Upon an Eid, a collection of brilliant Muslim voices and stories. Ashley lives in Arkansas with her husband and her children.

EBONY GLENN is an Atlanta-based illustrator who enjoys bringing stories to life with whimsical illustrations. Ebony is the illustrator of Mes petits souliers rouges, written by Karen English; and Speak Up, written by Miranda Paul, among others.

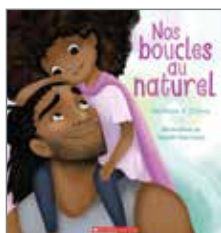

Elle chante d'une voix aigüe pour accompagner le pépiement des oiseaux, et d'une voix grave pour accompagner le croassement des grenouilles. Elle partage toujours son amour de la musique et du mouvement avec un oiseau (en peluche ou non).

The Stone Child: The Misewa Saga, Book Three

It's a race against time to save Eli in this third book in the award-winning, Narnia-inspired Indigenous middle-grade fantasy series.

After discovering a near-lifeless Eli at the base of the Great Tree, Morgan knows she doesn't have much time to save him. And it will mean asking for help — from friends old and new. Racing against the clock, and with Arik and Emily at her side, Morgan sets off to follow the trail away from the Great Tree to find Eli's soul before it's too late. As they journey deep into the northern woods, a place they've been warned never to enter, they face new challenges and life-threatening attacks from strange and horrifying creatures. But a surprise ally comes to their aid, and Morgan finds the strength to focus on what's most important: saving her brother's life.

DAVID A. ROBERTSON is the author of numerous books for young readers including Governor General's Literary Award winners Ligne de trappe and Quand on était seuls. La saga Misewa : N° 1 - Les terres isolées was a Kirkus, NPR, and Quill & Quire best middle-grade book of 2020, as well as a USBY and Texas Lone Star selection. The third book in the series, The Stone Child, was a 2023 co-winner of the McNally Robinson Book for Young People Award (Older Category). Winner of the Writers' Union of Canada's Freedom to Read Award, as well as the 2021 Globe and Mail Children's Storyteller of the Year recipient, Dave is a member of Norway House Cree Nation and currently lives in Winnipeg, Canada.

★ PRAISE

"For a combination of adventure, time travel and Indigenous culture, few series will challenge the Misewa Saga... Robertson weaves a tale that is part myth, part fantasy and wholly intriguing."

~ Winnipeg Free Press

"[T]he narratives of the two previous books of the Misewa Saga weave together in a new way, and the characters of Morgan, Emily, and Eli are realized more fully.... Teen dialogue and behaviour are presented with unflinching authenticity....and Robertson is skillful in providing cultural context."

One card isn't nearly enough, and soon Narval is flooding Jelly with gifts galore: waffles, a book about Jelly, more waffles, a song about Gelato... MORE waffles!

#2: Kingdom of Water

Even though Rema's portals no longer work for Tabby, she hasn't given up on finding a way back to her world. Her father's last words urge her to search for a lost geist prince, but the escalating hunt for geists means that Philip and the others are in more danger than ever. When Philip is apprehended, Tabby must expose the lost history of Rema and those who want to distort it. But the secrets of the geists, Tabby's father, and the ghost that haunts them threaten to overturn everything Tabby knows — and change her relationship with Philip forever.

Pas recherché

Un-Wanted

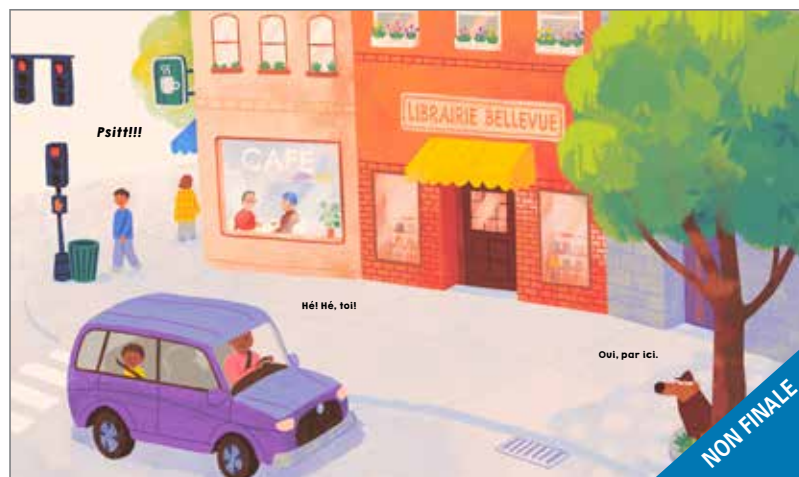

I don't want to sound paranoid, but I swear something's been watching me.

After his adventure running away, life has been going wonderfully for Bumble the dog since coming home. Well, at least it was, until some strange things start to happen. Hairballs litter the house, scratch marks are appearing everywhere, and Bumble is sure someone's been watching his every move. Who could this mysterious intruder be?

Find out in this hilarious picture book by the author/illustrator team that brought you Bo et Réal and Je ne suis pas perdu!

KASHELLE GOURLEY distinctly remembers discovering the magic of books as a little girl in a Northern California library. It opened up another level of imagination, joy, and wonder that she hopes to share with others through her own writing. After moving from coast to coast and overseas to Paris, you can now find her adventuring with her husband and three children in the great Midwest.

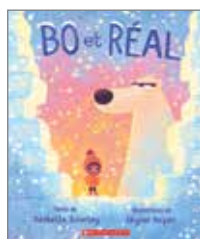

SKYLAR HOGAN is an illustrator and storyteller who also works on animation projects and card illustration, including a popular holiday card for Papyrus/Target. He lives in Nebraska.

L'ours en robe de chambre

Bear in a Bathrobe

A delightful new picture book that encourages readers to step outside of their comfort zone with the help of a security blanket and some good pals, from powerhouse creator Maddie Frost.

It's wintertime and Bear is ready to stay indoors and cozy up in his bathrobe until spring. His bathrobe is the ultimate indoor experience because it keeps his ears toasty, has pockets for all of his snacking essentials, and allows for maximum relaxation all season long.

His friends look like they're having so much fun skating outside, and he could join them if he wanted to, but he's too busy having quality indoor alone time in his bathrobe to even think about going out into the wild. Besides, what if he fell and hurt himself, or slipped through the ice, or skated too far away from home? Winter is clearly the time for hibernation, not outdoor adventures.

But when Bear's friends share what makes them feel safe when they tackle new and sometimes scary experiences, Bear might just be ready to venture into the great outdoors and risk falling on the ice.

L'ours en robe de chambre invites readers to courageously tackle new — and slightly frightening — experiences and reminds them that it's not about whether you fall or not, but how you get back up.

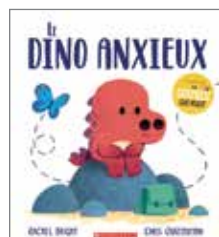

MADDIE FROST is a children's author-illustrator from Massachusetts. Her books focus on funny characters and are packed with heart. Most of Maddie's ideas come from emotional and personal places that are spun into a hilarious story. She uses her anxious and worried brain to make art and relate to readers of all ages. When Maddie is not making books, she's hanging out with her two pups, Mozzie and Remy.

★ PRAISE

"Frost's character designs...radiate kid-appeal...Timid readers who need a cocoa-cup of courage to tackle new experiences will resonate with Bear's waffling and winking narrative voice, perhaps discovering for themselves that it's easier to come out of hibernation with a little help from one's friends."

La grande fête d'hiver

The Big Snowdown

The big moment is here — the start of the first winter games! Most of the forest animals have trained all year, honing their skills to compete in a variety of events. Owl hasn't trained at all. But Owl isn't worried! She's always the best at everything without having to train or practice. Her natural talent and confidence are enough — or so she thinks.

Best-selling author-illustrator Katy Hudson brilliantly showcases themes of self-awareness, friendship, and the difference between being confident and being arrogant in this entertaining picture book.

KATY HUDSON won the Oppenheim Toy Portfolio Best Book Award Gold in 2014.

She is the author-illustrator of the best-selling picture books Trop de carottes! and Silence, c'est l'hiver! which both received numerous positive reviews. Katy lives in London, England.

Le chasseur d'histoires

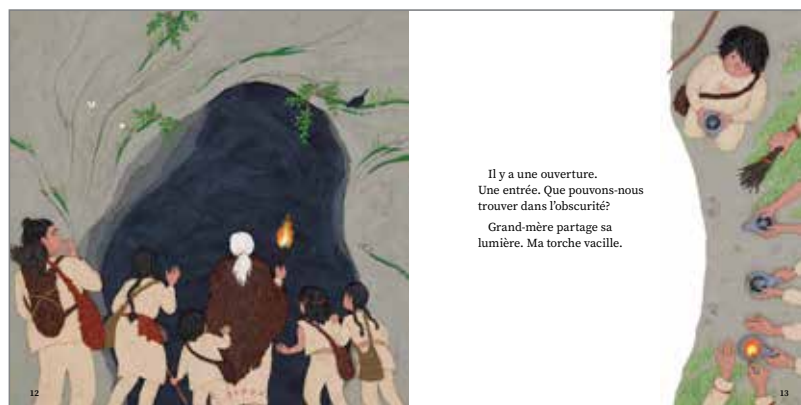

The Story Hunter

An extraordinary story that celebrates the art and origin of storytelling itself!

In this unique and captivating new book, a curious, stone age hunter-gatherer child follows Grandmother on an unusual hunting expedition into a deep cave. Overcoming fear of being swallowed by the dark, the child experiences the painted animals that spring to life on the cave walls and takes part in painting a new family story, leaving his marks in the form of hand prints. Inspired by this magical experience, the child chooses to become a story hunter, carrying the community's stories as the family moves on.

Using her signature Plasticine artwork, award-winning author and artist Barbara Reid delivers a beautiful and philosophical tale of discovery and the roots of creativity.

BARBARA REID is the bestselling author and illustrator of more than a dozen picture books, and the illustrator of over twenty-five. She has won the Ezra Jack Keats Award, the Vicky Metcalf Award for Literature for Young People, the Governor General's Award for Illustration, and the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Award. Dog Man

Dav Pilkey's wildly popular Super Chien series appeals to readers of all ages and explores universally positive themes, including empathy, kindness, persistence, and the importance of being true to one's self.

N° 14 - Gros Jean : La conviction

#14: Big Jim Believes

Join the journey as our heroes discover the influence of belief and find truth from within. With threads of self-awareness, confidence, and integrity, Dav Pilkey masterfully crafts a humorous and heartfelt adventure, weaving together the importance of truth, goodness, and believing in yourself.

The celebration comes to a halt for our heroes when the mischievous Space Cuties From Space return. Our caped crusaders — Super Chien (aka Scarlet Shedder), Commander Cupcake, and Sprinkles — along with Mecha Molly discover that the city has changed, and nothing is how it should be. Can Gros Jean's positivity and innocence help our heroes? Will Super Chien, Gros Jean, Grampa, and Molly have the courage to trust each other and save the day? How does the past help shape the future? And who is the chosen one?

DAV PILKEY has written and illustrated several popular award-winning books for children. Les aventures du Capitaine Bobette, which has sold more than one million copies in print, was an American Bookseller Pick of the Lists and a Publishers Weekly "Cuffie" Award winner for the Funniest Book of the Year. He is the creator of the Mini Chat et son club BD and Super Chien series. Dav Pilkey lives in the Pacific Northwest.

K-Boum!

K-Boum!

In this series launch, acclaimed creator, and lifelong comics fan, Jay Odjick introduces a superhero for our times.

Décollage

Blast Off!

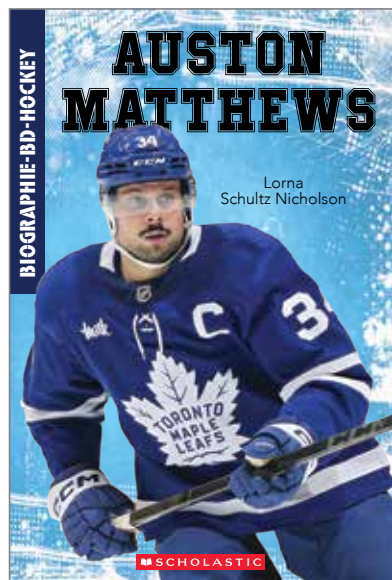

Meet Kaboom: Zack Commonda, agent of F.U.S.I.O.N (First Universal Secret Indigenous Operatives Network), and the newest superkid on the block! Well...sort of. He's still figuring it all out.

When we meet Zack, he's being looked after by his super-cool Auntie Jess and dreaming of one day being like his hero, slick business tycoon Konstantin Pierce. Zack's parents are away — yet again — for their important careers in "refrigerator sales." Little does Zack know their true identities: Greywolf and Shadowbird are F.U.S.I.O.N agents on a mission to protect Indigenous artifacts from a nefarious tomb-robber!

Amazing Hockey Stories: Auston Matthews

A spotlight on Auston Matthews — NHL superstar!

Born in San Ramon, California, and raised in Scottsdale, Arizona, hockey might seem like an unlikely career choice for Auston Matthews. But he fell in love with the sport at a young age, and his natural talent was quickly apparent.

After participating in USA Hockey's National Team Development Program and playing a single season in the top Swiss pro league, Auston was drafted first overall by the Toronto Maple Leafs and made his NHL debut shortly after his nineteenth birthday.

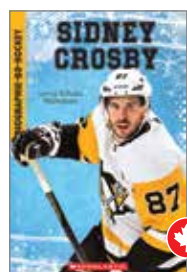

In his career in the NHL, Auston has racked up records, awards and accolades, especially for his ability to score goals — lots of them!

As the Maple Leafs continue their quest for the Stanley Cup, Auston Matthews is leading the charge.

LORNA SCHULTZ NICHOLSON grew up in St. Catharines, Ontario, and as a child loved to read, write, and compete in all kinds of sports. She is the respected author of many middle-grade and YA novels, the Puckster picture book series, and several nonfiction books about hockey, including the Biographie-BD-Hockey series. Lorna lives in Penticton, British Columbia with her family.

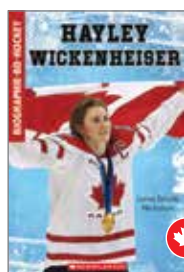

DAVID BISHOP always wanted to make comics...and now he does! He was born in Montreal, grew up in Brampton and now resides in Pickering, Ontario. He has recently illustrated for the Chapterhouse series True Patriot Presents and writes and draws his own comic series, Of Stone. David also enjoys oil painting and just hanging out with his wife and two kids.

Penguin and Pup: The Perfect Egg

Meet Penguin: he's thoughtful, kind and loyal. He can be a bit cautious with new things, and he's very sensible. Pup, on the other hand, is a fun-loving whirlwind! She always thinks big and sometimes gets a bit carried away...

Like lots of friends, Penguin and Pup like VERY different things. Especially when it comes to Easter. All Penguin wants is a perfectly sized chocolate egg to enjoy in the garden. Pup, on the other hand, is thinking: why stop there? What about a ROCKET EGG, or an EGGSHELL PIRATE SHIP? It's a recipe for disaster, and LOTS of laughter.

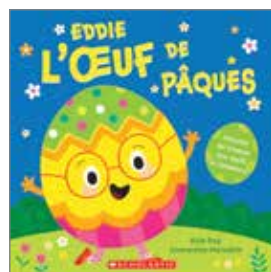

Whether you are more Penguin or more Pup, come along and let the giggling begin!

Billy Bison va chez le coiffeur

Blue Bison Needs a Haircut

Billy Bison prides himself on always looking clean and neat. But he has a growing problem — his hair. With the barber shops and just about everywhere else closed, all Billy can do is ram his ramming rock in frustration. Meanwhile, his hair keeps growing.

His dad encourages him to be patient and wait, and his mom tries to explain that sometimes you want something that you really don't need. But all Billy Bison can do is whine and wallow. Could little sister Bulle Bison have the solution?

A wildly hilarious story with a subtle message that waiting is hard but sometimes necessary.

SCOTT ROTHMAN is a writer of screenplays and picture books, including Attack of the Underwear Dragon and Return of the Underwear Dragon. His humour writing has appeared in The New Yorker, GQ, and McSweeney's. He lives in Connecticut with his wife and kids.

Le Club des Baby-Sitters

The Baby-Sitters Club

No matter the situation, you can always count on the Club des Baby-Sitters. Whether it's disobedient children, big dogs, strange neighbours or parents who are little too strict, nothing can stop them when it comes to baby-sitting! Adapted from the beloved series by Ann M. Martin, this series is sure to inspire a new generation of entrepreneurs.

N° 16 - Kristy et la catastrophe ambulante

#16 : Kristy and the Walking Disaster: A Graphic Novel

A Club des Baby-Sitters graphic novel adapted by National Book Award longlist and Eisner-nominated cartoonist Ellen T. Crenshaw!

They're lean, they're mean, they're the pride of Stoneybrook. Who are they? They're Kristy's Krushers!

When Kristy sees how much her little brothers and sister want to play on a softball team, she starts a ragtag team of her own. Maybe Kristy's Krushers aren't world champions (how could they be, with Jackie Rodowsky, walking disaster, playing for them?), but nobody beats them when it comes to team spirit.

Now Bart's Bashers have challenged the Krushers to a game. It's bad enough that the Bashers truly are lean and mean — but what's worse is that Kristy has a crush on the Bashers' coach!

ANN M. MARTIN's Le Club des Baby-Sitters series is one of the most popular series in the history of publishing. She is also the author of Belle Teal, A Corner of the Universe (a Newbery Honor book), Here Today, and A Dog's Life. She lives in New York.

ELLEN T. CRENSHAW is the creator of the New York Times bestselling Club des Baby-sitters graphic novels L'erreur de Stacey and Kristy et la catastrophe ambulante by Ann M. Martin. When she's not making comics, Ellen loves playing video games, hiking with her dog, and deconstructing movie plots with her husband.

Marée noire : L'histoire à l'origine du Jour de la Terre

Black Beach: A Community, an Oil Spill, and the Origin of Earth Day

This true story of the first Earth Day — told through the eyes of a fictional child — will inspire readers of all ages to stand up for their planet.

Twenty million people across the country made their voices heard on the first Earth Day.

Some came out to celebrate the environment, while others protested and demanded change.

A movement was born.

In 1969, Union Oil caused an oil spill off the coast of Santa Barbara, California that would change the world. Hazardous crude oil from the blowout flooded the Pacific Ocean, harming wildlife and devastating habitats. But from this ecological disaster sprang a new wave of environmental activism that continues to this day.

Based on actual events, Marée noire : L'histoire à l'origine du Jour de la Terre follows Sam and her classmates as they fight back. Sam initially feels powerless watching her parents and neighbours try to clean up the oil spill. But as her awareness grows, she learns she's not alone in caring for the Earth. The impact of the spill seeps into living rooms and classrooms across the nation. People everywhere are motivated to act, and a movement to protect and celebrate the environment is born.

SHAUNNA and JOHN STITH are passionate about protecting the planet. Originally from the East Coast, they now live on the Santa Barbara Channel in Southern California where they are continually inspired by the hard work of young eco-activists. Like Sam, they've learned it feels a whole lot better to stand up and act than to sit back and watch. Marée noire : L'histoire à l'origine du Jour de la Terre is their first picture book together.

MARIBEL LECHUGA is an illustrator living in Madrid, Spain. Her versatility and sensitivity make her illustrations stand out. She loves beautiful textures and bright colours, nature, animal watching, and hiking.

★ PRAISE

" A beautiful and motivating way to look into the makings of the very first Earth Day. Marée noire shows how far we've come and still how much work we have left to do. "

~ Dave Matthews, Musician and UN Environment Goodwill Ambassador

" [A] perceptive view of a major milestone in the environmental movement. ...this story offers a template for the sort of internal sea change required to spark real concern for environmental — or any other — issues. "

From multi-award winning, New York Times bestselling duo Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen, the Je vois series is a unique quartet of board books that playfully invites readers to explore a farm landscape as it is transformed by the changing seasons — a tree that has full green leaves in Je vois l'été sheds them in Je vois l'automne, the snowy sky of Je vois l'hiver gives way to the rainy sky in Je vois le printemps. And of course, the perfect hat changes with each season, too!

Millie Fleur au secours de la nuit

Millie Fleur Saves the Night

Garden Glen was afraid of the dark. Each night when the sun went down, all the lights in town turned on. The houses shone like the noon sun. Every house except for Millie Fleur La Fae's, of course.

Millie Fleur knows there are enchanting things that can only be glimpsed in the dark. But ever since she moved to Garden Glen, her nighttime friends are nowhere to be found.

Determined to welcome the dark back to town, Millie Fleur bakes delicious moon pies and plants a sweet-smelling moon garden. But before the nighttime creatures will return, Millie Fleur must convince the townspeople to be brave and turn out the lights.

Millie Fleur au secours de la nuit is a delightfully peculiar story that encourages readers to find beauty in the darkness. A gorgeous companion to the New York Times bestseller Le jardin particulier de Millie Fleur, perfect for fans of The Dark by Lemony Snicket and Jon Klassen.

CHRISTY MANDIN is the author and illustrator of multiple picture books. She's grown many interesting plants in her garden over the years but, so far, none with teeth or tentacles. She currently lives in Georgia with her husband and four children.

★ PRAISE

" This warm and pleasant bedtime tale will reassure kids frightened of the dark. Mandin makes a strong case that nighttime should be savored; her work will spark a sense of wonder about natural phenomena not evident during the day. ...Nighttime comes alive here. "

★ PRAISE

" Barnett opens his casebook again — this time to solve a classic locked-room mystery... Almost every page contains Lowery's illustrations, loosely drawn and garishly coloured in green and orange, which give the whole affair a zany feel that is much enhanced by the narrative with its running gags. Kudos to a pint-size Poirot, pre-mustache! "
