Il n'y a personne dans cette maison

The House With Nobody In It

Peek through doors and windows to explore a mysterious house in this innovative shaped novelty board book for young readers who relish the lightly spooky, from the Caldecott Medal-winning and New York Times bestselling Jon Klassen, creator of Rendez-moi mon chapeau and Le crâne.

Here are the things in this house: a chair, a clock on the wall, a stool, a lamp. And more. What's missing from this house? Somebody. This is the house with nobody in it. Well, there might be something...

Designed as a sturdy keepsake to read, play with, and treasure, Il n'y a personne dans cette maison takes readers through a recognizable, cozy house, while layered die-cut doors and windows throughout introduce a hint of intrigue. This is the house with nobody in it — or is it?

Pairing the familiar with a touch of mystery, Jon Klassen proves once again to be a master of breaking the mold, playing with expectations, and delighting even the youngest of readers.

JON KLASSEN is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book Ce n'est pas mon chapeau won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. In 2026, he became the first Canadian recipient of the Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award. Jon was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and currently resides in Los Angeles.

★ PRAISE

"Preschoolers, get ready for your first official ghost story.... To set the mood, Klassen relies heavily on colour; the first few rooms are brightly lit in the sun's rays, but the home grows dimmer as readers proceed. Treating the book itself as a physical location begging to be explored (it's even shaped like a house), Klassen extends the format beyond its usual limitations, allowing a short story of surprising depth to emerge. A spooky house tour, unafraid to redefine what board books are capable of achieving."

~ Kirkus Reviews, starred review

"[A] gently eerie board book ghost story.... Giving youngest readers ample space to contemplate their own perceptions, Klassen again displays a remarkable knack for creating lingering, fully realized works through the sparsest storytelling."

10 Surprising Facts about Chickens

Chickens are incredible animals! Did you know that they communicate with their eggs before they hatch? Or that they can remember faces? They even create a hierarchy to figure out who's the boss of the coop! But chickens can be a bit "chicken" at times, even if mother hen is too proud to admit it. Will the chicken's true nature ruffle some feathers when they discover the surprising facts about their prehistoric past?

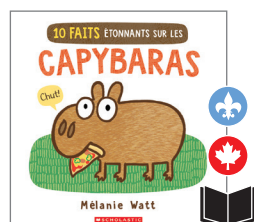

After revealing the capybara's biggest secret, beloved picture book creator Mélanie Watt is back, this time to teach us all about another fascinating animal.

Funny and irreverent, this picture book series from the creator of Chester and Scaredy Squirrel teaches some very interesting animal facts and will have readers laughing — and learning — the whole way through.

The author-illustrator MÉLANIE WATT, born in Trois-Rivières, has won prestigious awards for her work, including the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Children's Book Award, the Blue Spruce Award, and the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Illustrator's Award, all for her series Frisson l'écureuil. She is the bestselling creative genius behind many beloved picture books for children, including the Frisson l'écureuil series, the Chester series, La mouche dans l'aspirateur, and Les aventures de Frisson.

Les yetis n'existent pas!

Yetis Don't Exist!

A FUR-tastically funny rhyming adventure by Kate Thompson, packed with visual humour and delights from illustrator Loretta Schauer.

*Have you heard the news?
You've been BAMBOOZLED...
YETIS DON'T EXIST!*

The news swirled over mountains, skipped through lakes and out to sea. Until who should hear it? Iggy the yeti and all his yeti friends. And they were a little bit surprised. So, the yetis who absolutely DO exist only had one option — to set off on a human search and help to change their minds!

The yetis trekked down steep slopes and through snowy forests when suddenly they saw gleaming streetlights up ahead...but found a strangely empty town! The yetis searched high and low, yet the humans were nowhere to be seen. Surely that could only mean one thing...

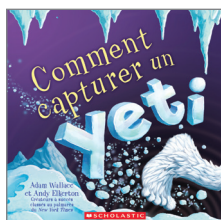

A wonderful, wintry story with a HUGE twist and a brilliantly clever visual narrative that will have all readers laughing out loud!

KATE THOMPSON spent much of her childhood with her nose in books, immersed in literary adventures. After a brief stint as a lawyer, Kate rediscovered her love of children's books and now spends her days on the south coast of England gleefully immersed in literary adventures of her own making. Kate lives by the sea with her husband, sons, a mischievous white cat, and the occasional visiting hedgehog!

LORETTA SCHAUER originally trained as a dancer, then managed a conservation charity on Hampstead Heath for many years — battling brambles by day, and practising her drawing skills by night. She won the Waterstones "Picture This" competition in 2012 and has since illustrated many picture books and fiction titles.

L'amour l'emporte toujours

Love Finds a Way

An instant New York Times bestseller!

For fans of J'ai besoin d'un câlin and L'amour... comes a sweet story about the healing power of love.

Sometimes your best friend is only a tail wag away!

Oscar the bird is worried that one day love will find him. After all, there's a scurry of friendly squirrels in the forest who just can't help showering him with affection. Determined to keep it — and them — away, he gets a scruffy guard dog and names him Brutus.

Brutus quickly learns to growl and bark and chase. And he becomes a very good guard dog. So Oscar gives him a friendly scratch. Then a tasty treat. And soon, growling and barking and chasing aren't Brutus's only jobs. There's also fetching sticks...and keeping Oscar company...

And maybe even teaching Oscar a thing or two about love.

From the creator of the beloved Harold the Bear series, L'amour l'emporte toujours is a joyous and heartwarming celebration of friendship and the power of love.

VERN KOUSKY lives outside of Philadelphia, where he spends his days walking in the woods, tending to his plants, and trying his best to befriend the neighbourhood squirrels. He is the author-illustrator of I See You, Sad Bear; the Harold the Bear books; Milo Is Missing Something; and Lawrence: The Bunny Who Wanted to Be Naked. He is also the creator of The Blue Songbird and Otto the Owl Who Loved Poetry.

Une maison pour Margaret

Home for Margaret

One day, when Emma and her mom are hiking through Cherry Hill Forest, they spot a blue tent in the snow. Inside lives a woman named Margaret.

Emma wonders why she's there, until Mom, who is a social worker, explains: "Some people have lost their jobs. Some people have health problems. No one chooses to be homeless."

Emma picks out a red hat, a scarf, and a pair of mittens to keep Margaret warm, and she and her mom visit Margaret throughout the winter. But in the spring, Margaret is gone! Emma is worried and wonders what has happened to her.

Seasons pass and Emma finally spots a woman downtown wearing red mittens! She is relieved, and she knows that there's one more thing she and her mom can do to show Margaret that they care about her.

A sensitive portrayal of a person experiencing homelessness, as seen through the eyes of a child. Includes an author's note about the real-life inspiration behind the story.

DENISE DAVY is a nationally recognized award-winning journalist who specializes in writing about mental health, homelessness, and gender issues. She is the author of Her Name Was Margaret: Life and Death on the Streets and is the founder of Purses for Margaret, which provides toiletries to women experiencing homelessness. Une maison pour Margaret is her first picture book. Get Me Another One

Kristi wants to go fishing with her dad — and makes the most amazing catch EVER!

A simple story about a great day of fishing for a girl and her dad — with a whimsical, fantastical, outrageous Robert Munsch twist, of course!

Kristi has finally persuaded her dad to take her fishing. But the waves make the boat go up and down, and she tumbles into the water. When dad pulls her back in, he gets a BIG surprise — Kristi is holding an ENORMOUS fish!

Could this be a new way to catch fish? When her next swim leads to an even bigger surprise, Dad knows it's time to go home.

But wait until Mom finds out!

This fresh, re-illustrated edition will introduce a new generation of readers to another hilarious tale from Canada's most famous storyteller.

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than 80 books in print, including such bestsellers as The Paper Bag Princess, We Share Everything!, So Much Snow! and Love You Forever. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. He has been nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award three times. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

DAVE WHAMOND is the creator of Oddrey and My Think-a-ma-Jink, both winners of the Blue Spruce Award. He illustrated the Robert Munsch books Braids!, Think Big! and School Rules! He also has a syndicated cartoon strip called Reality Check, which appears daily in a number of North American newspapers. Dave lives in Calgary, Alberta.

Sage et le Traîneau express

Sage and the Snowshoe Express

An action-packed picture book inspired by the true experiences of Indigenous mail carriers.

One winter, the weather is so bad in a remote village that the mail can't be delivered to or from the neighbouring community for many weeks. But then, on a clear morning, Sage's father decides he'll have enough time before the next storm arrives to transport everyone's letters and packages on the Snowshoe Express, a dogsled pulled by Nimoosh. When Sage finds an overlooked package in the snow and runs to catch up, she gets to go, too. But then they have a frightening encounter with wolves in the woods, a fast-moving storm threatens to overtake them, and Sage's excitement turns to fear. Will they (and the mail) be able to get to the other village safely?

This compelling, edge-of-the-seat adventure story is based on the life of author Louise Bradford's Anishinaabe and French great-great-grandfather, who delivered mail by snowshoe and sled. It offers children an excellent introduction to the important, and often treacherous, work of Indigenous mail carriers, bringing to life a lesser-known part of Indigenous history.

The story features cultural details in the illustrations as well as Anishinaabemowin words, with a glossary. An author's note and an introduction from the former chief of Batchewana First Nation, the community of the author and her ancestor, are also included.

LOUISE BRADFORD is the author of two picture books, and her other stories have been produced by CBC Radio and CBC Television. A proud member of Batchewana First Nation, she was born and raised in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, and now lives and writes in Vancouver, British Columbia.

MAYA McKIBBIN is a two-spirited multidisciplinary artist living on the unceded traditional territories of the xwməθkwəyəm, Skwxwú7mesh and səliwətał Nations. Maya's sequential art has been featured in The Silver Coin #5, Salmon Run, Shades of Fear and Lieux hantés : La bande dessinée volumes 2 and 3. Fake Skating

A #1 New York Times bestseller!

From the bestselling author of Better Than the Movies Lynn Painter comes a heartfelt and banter-filled rom-com about childhood sweethearts whose icy reunion in their hockey-loving hometown unexpectedly thaws when they fake a romantic relationship.

Growing up, Dani couldn't help but follow around the adorable son of her mom's best friend. Funny, kind of nerdy, and a little soft, Alec was always down to hang with Dani when they were little. From play dates to sneaking into movie theaters, Dani and Alec were inseparable. Until Dani moved away. Alec promised they'd stay in touch — except, they didn't.

Flash forward and Dani is back in Minnesota for her senior year, she and her mom living with her grandfather. Dealing with the fallout of her parents' devastating divorce, Dani wouldn't mind a nerd-out with the cozy and comforting Alec (and maybe a chance to confront him on his MIA status for all these years). But teenage Alec is nothing like the kid Dani remembers. He's a hockey star in a town where hockey players are worshiped as gods. Dani's place as his shadow has been taken up by drooling female fans...and he loves it.

Dani is resolved to ice out her former best friend until an unlikely series of events brings them together — and forces them to fake being a couple. Once stuck together, the former childhood sweethearts begin to reconnect, unearth complicated family secrets, and face their true feelings towards each other...including the real reason Alec has been pushing Dani away all these years.

LYNN PAINTER is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of Better Than the Movies, The Do-Over, Betting on You, Mr. Wrong Number, The Love Wager, Nothing Like the Movies, Fake Skating, and Trust Fall. She lives in Nebraska with her husband and pack of wild children, and when she isn't reading or writing, odds are good she's guzzling energy drinks and watching rom-coms.

★ PRAISE

"Romance fans will love the deliciously tension-filled scenes between Alec and Dani, who are believable friends with heavy demands weighing on them. They feel like real teenagers, and readers will enjoy rooting for them as the well-paced story unfolds.... A compelling romance inhabited by complex and appealing characters."

The Wonder

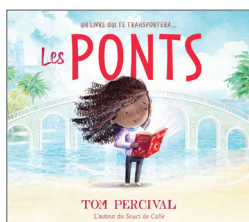

From bestselling author-illustrator Tom Percival comes a poignant picture book that encourages us to take notice of all the wondrous little things that happen to us each day.

Daniel is having a terrible day. From the rain that tumbles down from the dark, grey skies to the puddles that soak his shoes, Daniel's convinced that nothing will lift his mood. But everything changes when he hears the sweet, delicate sound of music, barely audible beneath the rain. Perhaps, if he looks carefully enough, Daniel might find that there are moments of joy and wonder that can brighten even the darkest of days...

The Easter Wolf

Ferdinand the Bull meets Elf in this hilarious and endearing story of a gentle wolf named William who dreams of becoming an Easter Bunny! Perfect for any Easter basket.

All William wants in the whole wide world is to be an Easter bunny: painting Easter eggs, making chocolate animals and wrapping them in golden foil, and best of all, carrying these treats to the children. William knows it's the right job for him. There's just one problem – William is a wolf!

When Betty, the Big Boss of the Easter bunnies, tells him he can't be one of them, William is heartbroken. He's no Big Bad Wolf; he eats vegetables! But William isn't giving up: if he can't be an Easter bunny, maybe he can be a bunny HELPER instead?

A delightfully humorous tale of perseverance about an egg-traordinary wannabe Easter bunny by bestselling author Linda Bailey.

I Am Picky: Confessions of a Fussy Eater

From beloved children's author Kristen Tracy and the #1 New York Times bestselling illustrator of Buffalo Fluffalo, Erin Kraan, comes a laugh-out-loud picture book about a self-proclaimed picky eater raccoon — perfect for human picky eaters!

Don't look at this raccoon and think she'll eat just anything. Oh, no. She is picky! She's been choosy forever — and listen, it's a tough life. It's not as though the perfect snacks just fall from the sky (except when they do). You've got to work to find the sourest milk, the crunchiest bumblebees, and the most delicious trash. Snacking while picky is a real challenge sometimes...but you never know where you'll find the tastiest treats to try!

Je suis difficile is sure to delight even the choosiest of eaters — and readers.

KRISTEN TRACY is a former teacher, a poet, a winner of the Emily Dickinson First Book Award from the Poetry Foundation, and an author of numerous books for children including Je suis gentil : Confidences d'un ours aimable and I Am Picky: Confessions of a Fussy Eater and the middle-grade novel Don't Trust the Cat. Je suis nous : Un livre sur le vivre-ensemble

I Am We: A Book of Community

Cultivate connection and kindness in Susan Verde and Peter H. Reynolds's Je suis nous, a companion to the New York Times bestseller Je suis humain.

*Connected is what we are:
part of a world-wide community,
diverse and magnificent, kind and accepting, supportive and present.
All of us important, none of us alone.*

Sometimes we may wonder, how does caring for ourselves help anyone else? But then we realize that the better we feel inside, the more we can be there for others — our friends, families, and communities. We are part of something bigger than ourselves, and when we each turn our goodness and compassion outward, we can create, learn, and love.

From the New York Times bestselling team comes a celebration of caring for ourselves AND others with open hearts and minds. Whether it's listening to a friend, welcoming newcomers, or standing up against injustice, Je suis nous shows us what true community looks like — and the amazing things that can happen when we come together.

SUSAN VERDE is the author of several picture books, including Je suis moi, Je suis courageux, Je suis humain, Je suis puissant, Le yoga c'est pour moi, and many more. After spending a number of years working as an elementary school teacher, Susan now writes and teaches kids' yoga in East Hampton, New York, where she lives with her three children.

PETER H. REYNOLDS is a New York Times bestselling author and illustrator of many books for children, including Joyeux rêveur, Le collectionneur de mots, Ta voix compte, Toi!, and Autour de la table. He is also the illustrator of Quand ça ne tourne pas rond, change de direction by Marc Colagiovanni. His books have been translated into over twenty-five languages around the globe and are celebrated worldwide. In 1996, he founded FableVision with his brother, Paul, as a social change agency to help create "stories that matter, stories that move." He lives in Dedham, Massachusetts, with his family.

★ PRAISE

"Verde's contemplative text sets a tone at once musing and affirming, while Reynolds' cartoon illustrations visualize the concepts in practical ways, grounding readers in colourful and emotive images. A genuine call to action paired with sincere reflection."

Bubble Gum Bison Needs a Bath

Bulle Bison will do just about anything to avoid taking a bath in this humorous picture book from Scott Rothman and #1 New York Times bestselling illustrator Pete Oswald.

Bulle Bison, Billy Bison's little sister, is having too much fun with her playground associates to take time out for a bath. In fact, she escapes through the bathroom window to avoid the inevitable. But when Bulle Bison slips in the mud, gets covered with bubble gum, and has bird feathers stuck all-over her, she finally decides it's time for a bath. But, what's this? There's no water! Could Billy Bison's ramming habit have anything to do with the hole in the water tank?

A wildly hilarious story with a subtle message that an unconventional solution can solve an unconventional problem.

Immigrant Experiences

The experiences of immigrants and emigrants, including their journey from their homelands and adaptations to their newfound homes

Racialized Identities

Read with Pride

Featuring characters who represent any identification within the LGBTQIA2S+ spectrum

Neurodivergence

Physical Disability

Featuring characters whose mobility or physical capacity is impacted by the physical and social barriers that create disability

Mental Health

Featuring characters with a range of mental illnesses or mental health challenges

Indigenous Stories

Featuring First Nations, Inuit, and/or Métis characters or communities, as well as other Indigenous groups from around the world

Ton cheval

Your Horse

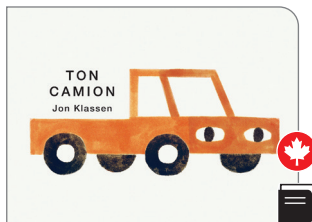

From Caldecott Medalist Jon Klassen comes another entry in this deceptively simple board book collection for the youngest of children.

*This is your horse.
It is yours to have.*

Jon Klassen brings his minimalist touch to a soothing story of a horse that a child can trust and befriend, one that is there for whatever the child needs. Building on the quiet but evocative world he created in Ta ferme, Ta forêt, and Ton île, Jon Klassen turns his focus to objects in Ton camion and now Ton cheval, inviting young children to consider more things that are theirs and theirs alone, reinforcing that they have a right to things like solitude, exploration, and companionship.

JON KLASSEN is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book Ce n'est pas mon chapeau won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. In 2026, he became the first Canadian recipient of the Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award. Jon was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and currently resides in Los Angeles.

Chez le castor

The Home That Beaver Built

A gorgeously illustrated picture book about one reluctant little beaver learning to share.

Beaver builds a new home, and it's perfect. It's calm, quiet, and best of all...just for her. She doesn't have to share a thing! But soon a chatty Frog decides Beaver's dam is the perfect home for HIM too...and then an otter, and some geese.

As more and more animals join the dam, can Beaver find a way to welcome them, or will she and the dam finally...BURST?

With themes of learning to accept others and overcoming difference, this is the perfect story for little ones learning to share.

Includes a non-fiction spread at the back of the book explaining that beavers are a keystone species, and their dams create vital habitats for many animals. Once built, other animals move into the dam, just like the story!

CHRISTINE PYM studied Illustration for Children at the North East Wales School of Art and has been illustrating since she graduated in 2006. Christine has created illustrations for children's books, cards, toys, and clothing with companies based in the UK, the US, France, and Australia. She lives in Staffordshire, England, and photographs wildlife in her free time.

Worm on the Job

Size isn't everything. Especially when it comes to Worm, who's willing to stretch his limits to get the job done!

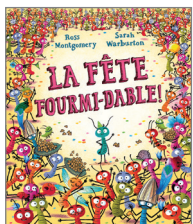

Worm loves being a librarian but has decided it's time for a new job. He considers many options — lifeguard, deep-sea fisherman, window washer — but none of them quite fits his, um, skill set. Until he comes across a posting looking for a courageous security guard to keep a thief from stealing the Invention Convention's exhibits during the night. It sounds like the perfect job for him! Unfortunately, the hiring manager doesn't agree. Worm is too small! Also, he's a worm. Can Worm convince the manager he's got what it takes? And, if he does get hired, will he really be able to capture the dastardly thief?

Award-winning author Maureen Fergus's story about the loveable, winsome Worm is just the right kind of absurd to tickle the funny bones of young children everywhere. Award-winning illustrator Paul G. Hammond's artwork is packed with loads of clever details (and hilarious inventions!) and manages to make Worm the star of every page, even as he's interacting with the much larger creatures in the human world. This is a great story for character education lessons on optimism and perseverance.

MAUREEN FERGUS's many books for young readers have been translated into a dozen languages, optioned for film, and adapted for stage. They include award-winning picture books such as The Day My Mom Came to Kindergarten and The Reptile Club. Maureen lives in Winnipeg, Manitoba, with her family, and has never met a talking worm she wouldn't hire.

PAUL G. HAMMOND is an award-winning illustrator working from his house in the woods of Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Good Families Don't

From the author of the classic Je t'aimerai toujours, the bestselling picture book for kids about a pesky fart monster is back for a new generation of readers! For fans of laugh-out-loud stories like Les fesses hantées de mon frère.

When Carmen tries to tell her parents that there's a gas-tly surprise on her bed, they don't believe her. "Good families like ours do not have farts," they say. But when they go upstairs to check and the fart attacks, Carmen is left to deal with the stinky situation!

A refreshed edition of this story is brought to life with brand-new art by New York Times-bestselling illustrator Joy Ang for the whole family (and their farts) to enjoy.

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than eighty books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac, On partage tout!, La tempête du siècle, and Je t'aimerai toujours. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021 he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

JOY ANG has illustrated many books for children, including the New York Times bestselling Atlas Obscura Explorer's Guide for the World's Most Adventurous Kid and Wings of Fire: A Guide to the Dragon World. She's also worked in animation, having designed characters for Cartoon Network's Adventure Time and for gaming studios such as BioWare and Supercell. Born in Canada, Joy now lives in the Seattle area of Washington.

★ PRAISE

"Ang's witty digital art goes all in (including cheeky images of Carmen eating beans and cheese at the story's start). Readers with a penchant for potty humor will be enticed."

~ Kirkus Reviews

"...the key ingredient in all Munsch's books is his feeling for children. He respects them."

La robe rouge de Tess : Un hommage à l'amour et à la famille

Tess's Red Dress: Honouring Love and Family

Six-year-old Tess is excited to welcome her new baby sibling into the world! She asks her mom what it was like growing up with a sibling. Tess's mom tells her stories about baking in the kitchen, singing loudly in the bathtub, sharing a bedroom, and braiding her sister's hair.

Despite their excitement over their growing family, they have experienced loss: her Auntie is one of the missing. As the family gets ready for the Red Dress Day march, Tess's mom and dad show her how to honour her Auntie by wearing her red dress and keeping the stories and memories of her family alive.

Using age-appropriate and empathetic language, La robe rouge de Tess introduces young children to Red Dress Day and the importance of remembering the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirit People. Backmatter pages include resources to support parents and educators through this important and difficult conversation with their children.

CAROLYN ROBERTS is a renowned educator, speaker, and storyteller with a wealth of experience and expertise in Indigenous education and decolonization. She is a St'at'imc and Sto:lo woman belonging to the Thevarge family from N'quatqua Nation and the Kelly Family from the Tzeachten Nation and a member of the Squamish Nation. Currently Carolyn holds the position as an Indigenous academic and Faculty Lecturer in the Teacher Education Department of the University of British Columbia.

KELSEY MATA FOOTE (Jaaxsnée) is a Tlingit and Filipina illustrator, writer, and producer from Ketchikan, Alaska. She has previously served as the Creative Editor of Restoration Magazine, a triannual publication dedicated to informing tribal leaders, advocates, and communities about emerging issues affecting American Indian and Alaska Native women.

La ménagerie mécanique

The Clockwork Menagerie

The Wild Robot meets Le jardinier de la nuit in this show-stopping environmental fable about the invention of clockwork animals designed to heal a dying planet, from the award-winning, New York Times bestselling Fan Brothers.

A group of scientists gather in a sooty, steampunk-like world to despair about the state of the planet. Their only hope comes in the form of a smooth-talking Horologist who proposes a Great Project, a Clockwork Menagerie that will clean the air, purify the soil, and replace all the life forms that have been lost in this dying land. Work begins on the mechanical wonders at once, and before long the clockwork animals are unveiled to much fanfare. The Menagerie is impeccable! Irrepressible! Incontestable! The Horologist has thought of everything...well, almost everything.

When the Great Project fails, all hope is lost...until something completely unexpected leads the Horologist to the studio of his young apprentice, where he is nurturing something very special of his own. The Clockwork Menagerie is a sweeping and timely inspirational tale that celebrates the importance of the natural world and caring for our planet, one small act at a time.

TERRY FAN received his formal art training at Ontario College of Art and Design in Toronto. His work is a blend of traditional and contemporary techniques, using ink or graphite mixed with digital. He spends his days (and nights) creating magical paintings, portraits, and prints. Together with his brother Eric, he wrote and illustrated the critically acclaimed picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit.

ERIC FAN is an artist and writer who lives in Toronto, Canada. He attended the Ontario College of Art and Design where he studied illustration, sculpture, and film. He has a passion for vintage bikes, clockwork contraptions, and impossible dreams. His widely-praised debut picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit, was a collaboration with his brother Terry.
