From Caldecott-winning creator Jon Klassen and rising star illustrator Jess Hannigan

When Abner struggles to blow a bubble on the playground, his devastation turns to determination. Using all the money in his piggy bank, he buys $42 dollars worth of bubble gum and teaches himself to blow an enormous bubblegum balloon.

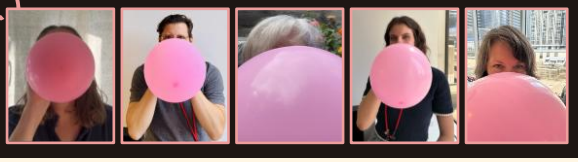

An epic journey ensues as the balloon carries him far away on a whimsical flight, landing him in a farmer's field, spurring an unlikely friendship.

As he earns back the money he needs to float home, Abner soon discovers the quiet pleasure of farm work, the power of friendship, and the profound ways we discover who we are when we dare to venture beyond!

Abner and the Bubblegum Balloon

By (author) Jon Klassen , Illustrated by Jess Hannigan

Feb 02, 2027 | Hardcover $25.99

From today's most esteemed and celebrated picture book creator, and in the tradition of beloved classics like Where the Wild Things Are, The Adventures of Beekle, and Harold and the Purple Crayon, comes a new epic adventure story that will enchant and captivate a whole new generation of young readers! Caldecott-winning creator Jon Klassen (I Want My Hat Back) and rising star illustrator Jess Hannigan (Spider in the Well) have created a groundbreaking, funny, and poignant story about the magical places determination and unexpected friendships can take you to.

When Abner struggles to blow a bubble on the playground, his devastation turns to determination. Using all the money in his piggy bank, he buys $42 dollars worth of bubble gum and teaches himself to blow an enormous bubblegum balloon. An epic journey ensues as the balloon carries him far away on a whimsical flight, landing him in a farmer's field, spurring an unlikely friendship. As he earns back the money he needs to float home, Abner soon discovers the quiet pleasure of farm work, the power of friendship, and the profound ways we discover who we are when we dare to venture beyond!

Jon Klassen is the author-illustrator of the Hat trilogy and The Skull, and the illustrator of many beloved classics such as Mac Barnett's Extra Yarn, Sam & Dave Dig a Hole, and The Three Billy Goats Gruff. Jess Hannigan is the author-illustrator of the wryly silly and critically acclaimed Spider in the Well and The Bear Out There.

Contributor Bio

Jon Klassen is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book This Is Not My Hat won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenaway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. In 2026, he became the first Canadian recipient of the Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award. Jon was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and currently resides in Los Angeles. Jess Hannigan is an illustrator and author living in Hamilton, Ontario. Her debut picture book was Spider in the Well, and The Bear Out There is her second. She has also illustrated for the New York Times, Readers Digest Canada, the Washington Post, and more. She is a lover of bold graphic art and silly, pointless nonsense.

10 Surprising Facts About Chickens

By (author) Mélanie Watt , Illustrated by Mélanie Watt

Jan 05, 2027 | Hardcover , Picture book | $21.99

Full of fun facts about our favourite farmyard animal — the chicken!

Chickens are incredible animals! Did you know that they communicate with their eggs before they hatch? Or that they can remember faces? But chickens can be a bit "chicken" at times, even if mother hen is too proud to admit it. Will the chickens' true nature ruffle feathers when they discover surprising facts about their prehistoric past?

After revealing the capybara's biggest secret, beloved picture book creator Melanie Watt is back to teach us all about another fascinating animal, the chicken.

Funny and irreverent, this picture book series from the creator of Chester and Scaredy Squirrel will have readers laughing – and learning – the whole way through.

Newly illustrated edition of a Munsch Classic

By (author) Robert Munsch , Illustrated by Dave Whamond

Jan 05, 2027 | Paperback , Picture book | $9.99

Kristi wants to go fishing with her dad — and makes the most amazing catch EVER!

A simple story about a great day of fishing for a girl and her dad — with a whimsical, fantastical, outrageous Robert Munsch twist, of course!

Kristi has finally persuaded her dad to take her fishing. But the waves make the boat go up and down, and she tumbles into the water. When dad pulls her back in, he gets a BIG surprise — Kristi is holding an ENORMOUS fish!

Could this be a new way to catch fish? When her next swim leads to an even bigger surprise, Dad knows it's time to go home.

But wait until Mom finds out!

Contributor Bio

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than 80 books in print, including such bestsellers as The Paper Bag Princess, We Share Everything!, So Much Snow! and Love You Forever. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. He has been nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award three times. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario. Visit him online at http://scholastic.ca/munsch/. DAVE WHAMOND is the creator of Oddrey and My Think-a-ma-Jink, both winners of the Blue Spruce Award. He illustrated the Robert Munsch books Braids!, Think Big! and School Rules! He also has a syndicated cartoon strip called Reality Check, which appears daily in a number of North American newspapers. Dave lives in Calgary, Alberta.

Praise for Robert Munsch:

"[Munsch is a] kindergarten superstar . . . he ranks up there with Pablum and Pampers in name recognition . . . arguably the most published Canadian author ever, in any genre." - The Globe and Mail, Report on Business Magazine

"Munsch's parade of bright, funny picture books has been a sales phenomenon in children's book publishing . . . And as Munsch books are requested by kids over and over every day in countless homes and schools, at story time and bedtime, the distinctive storyteller's voice will undoubtedly continue to be echoed for years to come by parents, teachers, babysitters and whomever else young kids can get to read to them." - The Chronicle Herald

"Arguably the most successful kid-lit writer in North America." - Toronto

Alligator Baby

By (author) Robert Munsch , Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

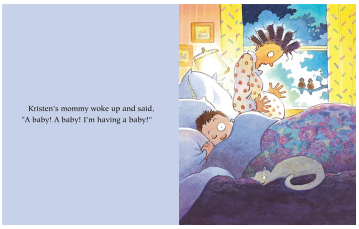

Jan 05, 2027 | Board book , Picture book | $12.99

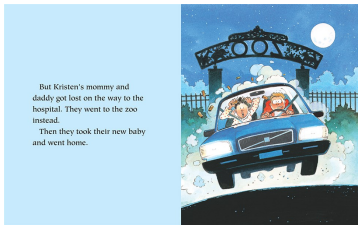

Kristen's parents bring the new baby home from the hospital. But this baby can't be Kristen's little brother!

One night Kristen's mom goes off to the hospital to have a baby. But Dad gets lost on the way, and ends up at the zoo instead. When they get home, Kristen takes one look at the baby and says, "That's not my baby brother — it's an alligator baby!" Her parents go back to the zoo to find their real baby. They bring back a baby seal, a baby gorilla — but no people baby. So Kristen has to go off to the zoo and fix things herself...

Soccer Oddballs

The Butts Take the Field (Soccer Oddballs Book 1)

By (author) Kevin Sylvester , Illustrated by Kevin Sylvester

Feb 02, 2027 | Paperback , Trade | $9.99

All they need is a chance . . . and a wealthy sponsor.

The Holstein Dairy Butters are the worst team in the league, but new members Jemma, Kasper, and Dylan are just grateful to be playing soccer. Like the rest of their misfit team — known as the Butts — they can't do flashy tricks, but they each have their own talent. Jemma moves like the wind, Kasper is all strength and zero confidence, and Dylan is a soccer savant who knows all the plays and strategies.

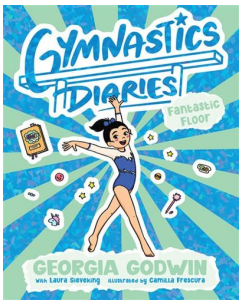

Still, if they want to win a game, they'll need a fairy godmother — or even better, a sponsor. One day, their coach gets a mysterious message: They can earn rewards by completing a series of challenges. First challenge: Win two games and get new jerseys. Will the Butts be on the bottom forever? And who is helping them — and why?

Kevin Sylvester kicks up a hilarious, heartfelt, and high-action new series for soccer fans.

Look Pretty

By (author) Ronnie Riley

Jan 05, 2027 | Paperback , Trade | $14.99

A poignant novel about identity, crushes and all the places in between.

Ola Owens is struggling with the idea of being a girl. In fact, Ola is pretty sure they're not one. Yet that's how the world sees them, and it's getting harder and harder to pretend — especially with an older sister who is very excited for her upcoming wedding. When Ola is roped into wearing a fancy dress to "look pretty" for their sister's engagement party, their discomfort grows. Then they have an incident that causes a huge scene at the party, and their grandmother, mother and sister all scold Ola for acting out, leaving Ola wondering how they're going to survive wedding season without combusting.

Meanwhile, Ola and their cousin (and best friend) Roz befriend Bess, who's just moved to their town. But when Ola realizes they have a crush on Bess, and fears Roz might as well, their friendship is put to the test.

The Favourite

By (author) Gordon Korman

Jan 05, 2027 | Hardcover , Paper over boards , Dust jacket | $26.99

Four siblings must compete with each other for the ultimate prize in this high-concept, hilarious new novel from #1 New York Times–bestselling author Gordon Korman.

There can be only one . . .The four Coleridge kids — Harper, twins Dylan and Lacey, and Bobby — live in Caddo, Oklahoma, where the most exciting thing that ever happens is cow tipping. Until their father swoops into town.

Dad happens to be billionaire Asher Coleridge, founder of Zzazz, the hottest fashion company for kids. And when his limo pulls up at school, it isn't for an ordinary visit. Zzazz needs a new brand ambassador to travel the world, attend star-studded parties, and be the face of the company. Asher wants it to be one of his kids. But how will he decide which one? That's where the Contest comes in.

Over the course of several weeks, it is on. From soccer games to a Monopoly smackdown, a high-stakes school election to the world's most intense pizza-eating challenge, the siblings will do almost anything to wow their billionaire dad and earn the coveted title. Even the family pet — a three-legged rat named Ollie — gets involved.

Each kid has their own reasons for wanting to escape Caddo. But there can only be one Zzazz brand ambassador. How far are they willing to go to win?

Hypergifted

By (author) Gordon Korman

Jan 01, 2027 | Paperback , Trade | $12.99

The guys from Ungifted and Supergifted are back in their final hilarious school adventure.

Donovan Curtis, Noah Youkilis and their friends from the Academy for Scholastic Distinction have graduated from middle school, so it's on to ninth grade for everyone . . . well, everyone except Noah. Because of his super-genius status, and much to his dismay, he's been graduated from high school as well, and is sent to a summer program at Wilberton University to acclimate him to campus life before enrolling as a freshman in September. He is allowed to bring one person with him, so of course he chooses Donovan, his very own conduit to the real world. Donovan is given a job as a camp counsellor for children of University staff. What could possibly go wrong?

Dear Canada

Dear Canada: These Are My Words

The Residential School Diary of Violet Pesheens

By (author) Ruby Slipperjack

Apr 06, 2027 | Paperback , Trade | $12.99

Now in paperback, Ruby Slipperjack's acclaimed bestselling novel about a twelve-year-old Anishnabe girl's experiences at a residential school in 1966.

Violet Pesheens is struggling to adjust to her new life at residential school. Everything she brought has been taken from her, including her name; she is now just a number. She also misses her Grandma, has run-ins with Cree girls and faces stares — and worse — at her "white" school. But worst of all, she is afraid of forgetting the things she treasures most: her Anishnabe language, the names of people she knew before and her traditional ways of life. She is afraid of forgetting who she was.

Violet's notebook is the only place where she can record all of her worries, heartbreaks and memories. And maybe, just maybe, she will find hope in sharing her words.

Drawing from her own experiences at residential school, Ruby Slipperjack creates a brave yet heartbreaking heroine in Violet and gives young readers a window into this dark chapter in Canada's history.

Contributor Bio

Dear Canada: That Fatal Night

The Titanic Diary of Dorothy Wilton

By (author) Sarah Ellis

Apr 06, 2027 | Paperback , Trade | $12.99

Now in paperback, a Dear Canada favourite about one girl's experiences on the ill-fated Titanic.

It is May 1912, one month after the horrific sinking of the Titanic. Twelve-year-old survivor Dorothy Wilton has been sent home from school in disgrace for striking another student. Although she's been expelled from school, her sympathetic teacher encourages Dorothy to write about her experiences on the ship, with the hope it will help Dorothy come to terms with her trauma.

So begins a truly remarkable story. Dorothy writes about visiting her bohemian grandparents in England before setting sail back home, about the luxurious rooms and cabins on board the Titanic, about a new friend she makes and the intriguing people they observe. However, a shadow lurks in Dorothy's story: the secret she is too traumatized to acknowledge, one about her own actions that may have had deadly consequences on that fatal night.

Through young Dorothy's eyes, award-winning writer Sarah Ellis expertly takes a unique perspective on the Titanic tragedy, exploring the concept of survivor's guilt with devastating honesty.
