Popol et Papa

Tad and Dad

Popol the tadpole loves spending every minute with his awesome dad, whether they're swimming together, catching flies, or sleeping. But now little Popol is getting bigger. He's growing new limbs and jumping to new heights. His dad is proud, but when Popol's accomplishments carry over into nighttime — bringing lots of wiggling, croaking, and kicking in his sleep — their lily pad starts feeling mighty crowded! When Popol finally realizes it might be time for a bed of his own, will Dad be ready?

An expressive tale about familial love that is full of funny, tender family dynamics sure to evoke nods of recognition and lots of laughs.

DAVID EZRA STEIN is the creator of many books for children. He received a Caldecott Honor for Interrupting Chicken (Arrête d'interrompre!) and the Ezra Jack Keats New Writer Award for Leaves. David lives in New York City.

★ PRAISE

“Parents faced with a child who has trouble staying in his or her own bed will relate to Dad's exasperation and chuckle at Tad's persistence. Kids will enjoy Tad's enthusiasm and obvious adoration of his father. Caldecott honoree Stein makes another splash with this charming duo.

Hourra! Le fermier n'est pas là!

The Farmer's Away! BAA! NEIGH!

What mischief do the animals get up to when the farmer's back is turned? Anne Vittur Kennedy lets us know in the animals' own words! There will be boating, of course, and a picnic, a rollercoaster ride, a hot-air balloon, ballroom dancing — oh, no! Could that arf! arf! arf! mean the farmer's heading back? Young listeners can read this book aloud by following along with the pictures and making each animal's sound.

ANNE VITTUR KENNEDY started out as a music teacher in public schools, but shifted to illustration. She has illustrated many children's books, including the Miss Fox and the Pony Scouts series. Anne lives in Ohio.

★ PRAISE

“Colourful acrylic spreads burst with action, while the cheerful, catchy text consists entirely of rhymed, onomatopoeic animal sounds as the frolicsome cows, horses, birds, pigs, dogs and mice, as well as other animals, sing together to form a nonsensical chorus that toddlers will happily join. [...] Babies, toddlers and very young emergent readers will delight in the strong, playful rhythm and energetic and detailed illustrations in this introduction to the noisy world of animal sounds.

Chair de poule

Classic Goosebumps

Le loup-garou du marais

The Werewolf of Fever Swamp

There is something weird happening in Fever Swamp. It started with the strange howling at night. Then there was the rabbit, torn to shreds. Everyone thinks Grady's new dog is responsible. After all, he looks just like a wolf. And he seems a little on the wild side.

But Grady knows his dog is just a regular old dog. And most dogs don't howl at the moon. Or disappear at midnight. Or do they?

R.L. STINE is one of the best-selling children's authors in history. In July 1992, Scholastic introduced a monthly book series by R.L. Stine called Goosebumps (Chair de poule) with its first novel: Welcome to the Dead House (La maison des morts). Twenty years later, Chair de poule is one of the best-selling children's series of all time — with more than 350 million English language books in print, plus an additional 50+ million international copies in print in 32 languages.

BATMAN VS
SUPERMAN:
DAWN OF JUSTICE
IN THEATRES
MARCH 25TH

Young Batman, Superman, and Wonder Woman start their very own Junior Detective Agency!

DC Comics : La société secrète des superhéros

DC Comics: Secret Hero Society: Study Hall of Justice

Being the new kid at school is tough, especially when your school is called Doomvale Academy and your name is Bruce Wayne. There's a gang of jokers roaming the halls, a muscle-headed kid named Bane wants to beat you up, and your headmaster Hugo Strange seems really, well, strange.

This inventive novel follows young Bruce Wayne and his friends Clark (Superman) and Diana (Wonder Woman) as they start a Junior Detective Agency to investigate their teachers and find out what's going on behind closed doors.

This all-new story presents a twist on the idea of junior sleuths, using comics, journal entries, and doodles to reimagine Batman, Superman, and Wonder Woman as three students in the same school. They'll try their best to solve their case, but just because you're faster than a speeding bullet or more powerful than a locomotive, it doesn't mean you get to stay up past eleven.

DEREK FRIDOLFS has worked professionally as a writer, inker, and artist for DC, Marvel, and numerous comic companies in the past 15 years. His most recent written works include the Eisner nominated Batman Li'l Gotham published at DC. Derek lives in California.

The Totally Secret Secret

Ballet Cat and Sparkles the Pony are trying to decide what to play today. Nothing that Sparkles suggests — making crafts, playing checkers, and selling lemonade — goes well with the leaping, spinning, and twirling that Ballet Cat likes to do. ## Quand est-ce qu'on arrive?

Are We There Yet?

Everyone knows that car rides can be boring. And when things get boring, time slows down. In this book, a boy feels time slowing down so much that it starts going backward — into the time of pirates! Of princesses! Of dinosaurs! The boy was just trying to get to his grandmother's birthday party, but instead he's traveling through Ancient Egypt and rubbing shoulders with Ben Franklin. When time flies, who knows where — or when — he'll end up. "Are we there yet?" Every parent has heard this classic kid question on a long car ride — and after reading this astonishingly inventive new book (that even turns upside down for several pages!), you'll never look at being bored the same way again.

DAN SANTAT is the illustrator of the acclaimed Oh No! (Or How My Science Project Destroyed the World) by Mac Barnett and Grognonstein by Samatha Berger. ### N° 8 - Muscade s'ennuie

#8: Nutmeg All Alone

Kat, Maya, and Grace are thrilled to be helping Aunt Jenn care for another puppy boarder at Tails Up. This time it is a 3-month-old Cavalier King Charles spaniel named Nutmeg. The girls show up on several afternoons to play with the puppy, but she seems sad most of the time. When Nutmeg stops eating altogether, the girls become quite worried.

Eventually, the girls realize that the puppy only seems to perk up when she sees Marmalade, the elderly cat who belongs to Tony, the receptionist at Tails Up. They begin to suspect that Nutmeg is missing her cat pals back home.

But what to do with the lonely pup who won't eat? Can crotchety Marmalade be persuaded to be a stand-in for Nutmeg's cat buddies? Or is there another solution?

SurvivantsI Survived1906 : Le tremblement de terre de San FranciscoI Survived the San Francisco Earthquake, 1906*

Ten-year-old Leo loves being a newsboy in San Francisco — not only does he get to make some money to help his family, he's free to explore the amazing, hilly city as it changes and grows with the new century. Horse-drawn carriages share the streets with shiny new automobiles, businesses and families move in every day from everywhere, and anything seems possible.

But early one spring morning, everything changes. Leo's world is shaken — literally — and he finds himself stranded in the middle of San Francisco as it crumbles and burns to the ground. Does Leo have what it takes to survive this devastating disaster?

LAUREN TARSHIS often wonders how she came to spend most of her waking moments thinking about disasters, as the author of the children's historical fiction series I Survived (Survivants). Each book takes readers into the heart of history's most thrilling and terrifying events.
