Dino-cumulus

Stego-cumulus

Parrot and Panda are very good friends, even though they see the world in very different ways. The one activity they can always agree on is cloud watching.

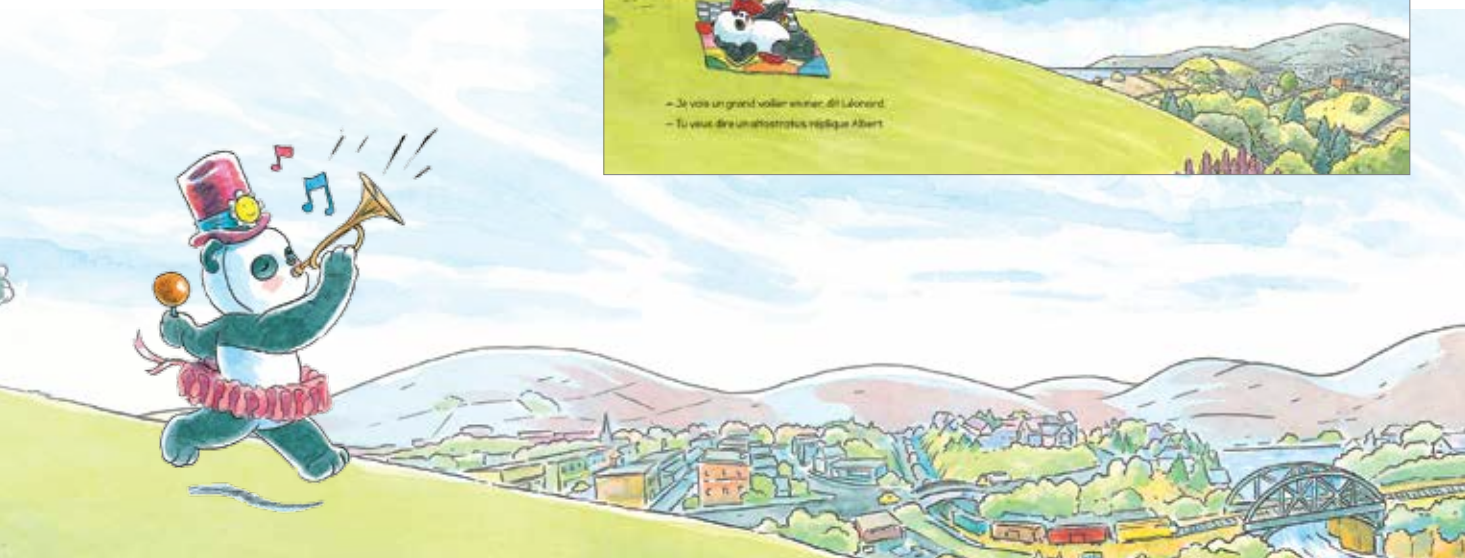

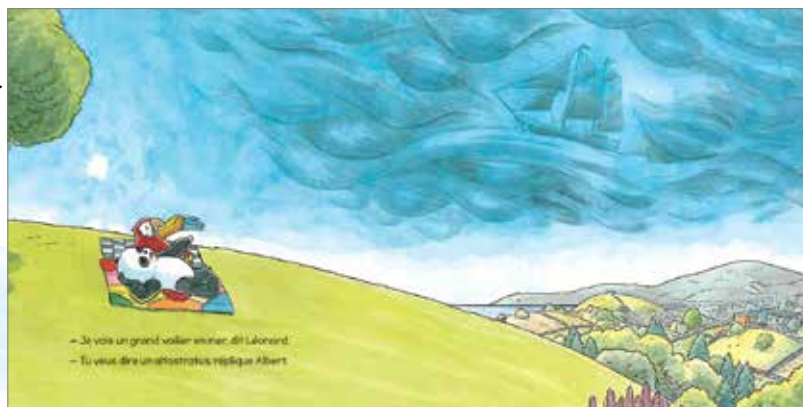

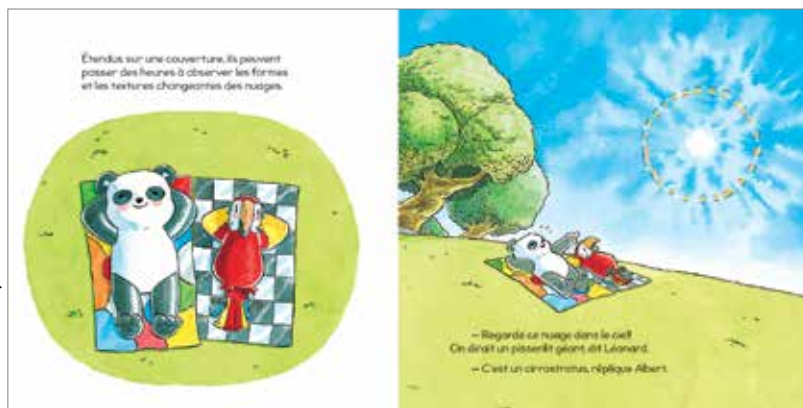

But on this day, where Panda sees a fearsome phoenix in the sky, Parrot sees only a classic nimbostratus. Where Panda sees a ship tossing on the sea, Parrot can only see the science of a cumulus formation. They decide to separate and watch on their own, only to find that Parrot wants to talk about the shapes and stories, and Panda misses talking about the science. Why do they have to decide cloud watching can only be about one or the other? And, so, a Stegocumulus is born.

An ode to friendship and cloud watching, a favourite childhood activity.

HILARY LEUNG is a writer, designer, illustrator, ultimate frisbee player and dad. He is the co-creator of the Ninja, Cowboy, Bear books. Hilary lives in Toronto with his family.

Papa et le dinosaure

Dad and the Dinosaur

A Caldecott-winning illustrator and Newbery-Honor author team up to tell the story of a father and son who bond over bravery and fears.

Nicholas wishes he could be as brave as his dad, but he needs help, in the form of a toy dinosaur. Dinosaurs like the dark. Bugs are nothing to them. They eat manhole covers for lunch (and everything under them for dinner). With his toy dinosaur safely in his pocket, Nicholas can be brave too: climbing walls, swimming in deep water, even scoring the winning soccer goal. But when the dinosaur goes missing, there's only one person who can help find him: Dad. And dads know that having a little help tackling your fears isn't something to be embarrassed about. It's just guy stuff.

GENNIFER CHOLDENKO is the New York Times bestselling author of over ten children's books, including Chasing Secrets, No Passengers Beyond this Point, and Al Capone Does My Shirts, a 2007 Newbery Honor selection. Over 2 million books from the Al Capone at Alcatraz series have been sold worldwide. Gennifer lives in the San Francisco Bay Area with her family.

DAN SANTAT is the illustrator of Photo d'école ratée and Grognonstein, both written by Samatha Berger, and the Ricky Ricotta series, written by Dav Pilkey. He is also the author-illustrator of the graphic novel Mini-justiciers and the picture book Les aventures de Beekle : L'ami imaginaire, winner of the 2015 Caldecott Medal. Dan lives in Alhambra, California.

Mets-moi dans ton livre!

Put Me in a Book!

On their way home from a field trip, Mrs. O'Dell's class meets a famous writer, who says he is looking for a kid to put in a book. Hailey volunteers, and the writer flattens her out, folds her up, and stuffs her in. Hailey does not like being in the book — she feels folded and scrunched and trapped and stuck, and asks the kids to get her out. They try scratching, pulling, twisting, and squishing the book. Will they ever be able to get her out of this bizarre tale?

Hugs

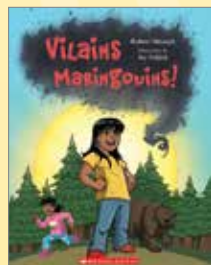

Thea and her little brother need a hug — but sometimes, only a mommy hug will do.

When Thea gets mad at mommy, she needs a hug to make her feel better. So Thea and her little brother go for a walk around the block to see if they can find the hug they need. They meet a snail, a skunk, a porcupine, a gorilla, and get a hug from each one — but the hugs are slimy, smelly, pokey, and way too hard! It's not until they get back to mommy that Thea and her brother get a really good hug.

ROBERT MUNSCH is Canada's bestselling author of more than fifty picture books for young readers. His heartwarming and hilarious stories are beloved by children, parents, teachers, and booksellers alike. In 2009, he was inducted into Canada's Walk of Fame. He lives in Guelph, Ontario.

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO'S illustrations are as instantly identifiable and lovable as Robert Munsch's stories. His wild and colourful pictures add depth and even more hilarity to these picture book tales. He received the CBA Children's Illustrator of the Year Libris Award in 2006. He lives in Toronto, Ontario.

Uni the Unicorn and the Dream Come True

The Land of Unicorns is in trouble — it has been raining and raining for what seems like forever. This is a big problem because there are only three ways that unicorns can get their magic: from the golden sun, from magnificent rainbows, and from the sparkle of believing.

Luckily, Uni the Unicorn has always always always believed... that little girls are REAL. Join this very special unicorn and the little girl who believes right back as they finally meet and work together to save a magical land and all who live there!

Petits frères et petites sœurs

Little Brothers & Little Sisters

Little sisters and little brothers all long for the same few things when it comes to their older siblings: a turn to play, a place on the team, a chance to shine. This book starts with four pairs of siblings in and around an apartment complex, each expressing through play and daily life the many gripes and pitfalls of younger siblings.

Subtly, the narrative shifts to reflect the good things that come with having an older sibling: a helping hand, a partner in crime, a friend for life. The book ends on a high note — when it comes to brothers and sisters, the good outweighs the bad, and both big and little siblings have a special place in each others' hearts. Minimal text paired with impressionistic, full-spread illustrations creates weight and emotion in this lovely book that will help kids feel understood in all the pains and joys of siblinghood.

MONICA ARNALDO grew up in Ottawa where she was sometimes allowed inside her older brother's forts. Drawn to illustration by her passion for children's books, she combines a variety of media to create images full of character. Monica is the author-illustrator of three picture books. She and her husband live in Montreal with their daughter.

L'école des poneys enchantés

Enchanted Pony Academy

A chapter-book series for fans of sparkle, ponies, and adventure!

N° 4 - Des rêves étincelants

#4: Dreams that Sparkle

Belissima is the prettiest pony at the Enchanted Pony Academy — everyone says so. The problem is, no one seems to see what else Belissima is: a talented, hardworking pony. Her real magic doesn't have anything to do with her looks! The royal children are coming to the Academy for the selection ceremony, and she is determined to show her many talents. It's her last chance to prove everything she can be — which is so much more than a show pony.

LISA ANN SCOTT is the author of School of Charm. She has been a TV news producer, reporter, and anchor, and she currently works as a voice-over artist. She lives in upstate New York.

— C'est joli, ces couleurs vives. J'aimerais vraiment avoir une licornette comme animal de compagnie. Je pourrais bien te choisir à la cérémonie de sélection. Quel est ton talent magique?

— Je peux faire briller ma corne et mes sabots, répond Électre.

— Je peux voir, s'il te plaît?

Électre s'efforce de les faire briller, mais la chaleur qu'elle ressent habituellement quand elle le fait est bien moins intense que d'habitude. Elle regarde un de ses sabots et se rend compte qu'il émet à peine une petite lueur. Qu'est-ce qui lui arrive?

— C'est tout? demande la petite fille qui semble déçue.

— D'habitude, ça brille plus. Je ne sais pas ce qui ne va pas. Peut-être que ça ne fonctionne pas aussi bien quand j'ai une cavalière.

Ou quand je suis déçue, pense-t-elle.

— D'accord. Tu me montreras ça plus tard. Pour l'instant, j'aimerais aller plus vite, annonce la petite fille.

— D'accord, dit Électre en s'élançant à travers le champ.

Méchant Minou au camp de vacances

Bad Kitty Camp Daze

Méchant Minou's life is really hard. Like really, REALLY hard. All he asks for is twenty-two hours a day to sleep and food to be delivered morning and night. But does he get it? No. And when Toutou and Bébé get a little rambunctious during his naptime, Méchant Minou gets bonked on the head and starts to believe he's... a dog.

This new dynamic freaks out Toutou, so he's sent away to Oncle Maurice's Camp for Stressed-Out Dogs to relax with other canine campers.

But guess who sneaks along? Still believing he's a dog, Méchant Minou fits right in. That is until he and oncle Maurice encounter a bear, and then the feline claws come out.

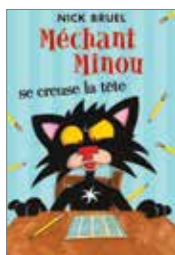

Perfect for any kid with or without camping experience.

Parvana : Une enfance en Afghanistan

La bande dessinée

The Breadwinner: A Graphic Novel

A special edition of Parvana : Une enfance en Afghanistan, an award-winning novel about loyalty, survival, families and friendship under extraordinary circumstances during the Taliban's rule in Afghanistan.

Eleven-year-old Parvana lives with her family in one room of a bombed-out apartment building in Kabul, Afghanistan's capital city. Parvana's father — a history teacher until his school was bombed and his health destroyed — works from a blanket on the ground in the marketplace, reading letters for people who cannot read or write. One day, he is arrested for the crime of having a foreign education, and the family is left without someone who can earn money or even shop for food.

As conditions for the family grow desperate, only one solution emerges. Forbidden to earn money as a girl, Parvana must transform herself into a boy, and become the breadwinner.

The book includes a map, author's note and a glossary to provide young readers with background and context. An eight-page colour insert features stills from the movie.

Come With Me

When the news reports are flooded with tales of hatred and fear, a girl asks her dad what she can do to make the world a better place. "Come with me," he says. Hand-in-hand, they walk to the subway, tipping their hats to those they meet. The next day, the girl asks her mom what she can do — her mother says, "Come with me," and together they set out to do their grocery shopping, because one person doesn't represent an entire race or the people of a land. After dinner that night, the little girl asks if she can do something of her own — walk the dog... and her parents let her go. "Come with me," the girl tells the boy across the hall. Walking together, one step at a time, the girl and the boy begin to see that as small and insignificant as their part may seem, it matters to the world.

In this lyrical and timely story, author Holly M. McGhee and illustrator Pascal Lemaître champion the power of kindness, bravery, and friendship in the face of uncertainty.

HOLLY M. MCGHEE is the author of the middle-grade novel, Matylda, Bright & Tender. What's Worrying You?

We all have worries now and then, but sometimes worries can feel like they're getting bigger and bigger, like you can't control them any more. What do you do then?

Qu'est-ce qui t'angoisse? is a book all about helping children understand their worries, and what to do when they feel overwhelmed by their thoughts and feelings.

Each page takes the child step-by-step through different worry scenarios, such as falling out with a friend, getting in trouble at school, or feeling like no one is listening to them. It talks about how they might feel, what they might think, and what could help them feel better.

The Witch Boy

In thirteen-year-old Aster's family, all the girls are raised to be witches, while boys grow up to be shapeshifters. Anyone who dares cross those lines is exiled. Unfortunately for Aster, he still hasn't shifted... and he's still fascinated by witchery, no matter how forbidden it might be.

When a mysterious danger threatens the other boys, Aster knows he can help — as a witch. It will take the encouragement of a new friend, the non-magical and non-conforming Charlie, to convince Aster to try practicing his skills. And it will require even more courage to save his family... and be truly himself.

Meet Viola Desmond, community leader and early civil rights trailblazer!

Voici Viola Desmond

Meet Viola Desmond

On the night of November 8th 1946, Nova Scotia businesswoman Viola Desmond stood up for her right to be in the “unofficial” whites-only section of a New Glasgow movie theatre... and was arrested for it. Supported by the Nova Scotia Association for the Advancement of Coloured People (NSCAACP) and the black-owned newspaper The Clarion, Viola took her quest for the right to freedom from discrimination to the courts. While she ultimately did not succeed, she was a beacon to other early civil-rights activists. Her sister Wanda worked hard to promote Viola's legacy, which has been finally honoured by Viola's inclusion on the new Canadian $10 bill.

N° 5 - Le sommeil de la force

#5: The Force Oversleeps

Victor is back at Jedi Academy and he truly embodies the definition of a sophomore, specifically a sophomore in a slump. He was excited about Drama Club and hoped to get the lead in this year's musical... But his best friend, Artemis, got the role. On top of that his sister, Christina, is getting ready to graduate from Jedi Academy. She's always taken care of him, and Victor is lost now that she's not around as much.

Can Victor roll with the (force) punches? Or will he revert to his old ways and go back to being the class clown?
