A brand-new Robert Munsch laugh-out-loud tale about the trials and tribulations of an oldest sibling!

Ages 3-8

Jamaal may be the oldest kid in his family, but he somehow got stuck with the smallest room. His parents agree that it isn't fair, but that is just how it is. But Jamaal isn't satisfied by the answer – if his parents aren't going to fix the house, he will use creativity and his own resourcefulness to engineer the perfect space!

What will mom and dad say about his home renovation?

Think Big!

By (author) Robert Munsch , Illustrated by Dave Whamond

On Sale: June 1, 2021 | Hardcover $19.99

A new laugh-out-loud tale about the trials and tribulations of an oldest sibling!

Jamaal may be the oldest kid in his family, but he somehow got stuck with the smallest room. His parents agree that it isn't fair, but that is just how it is. But Jamaal isn't satisfied by the answer – if his parents aren't going to fix the house, he will use creativity and his own resourcefulness to engineer the perfect space! What will mom and dad say about his home renovation?

This brand-new Robert Munsch story has all of the classic Munsch elements – wit, whimsical illustrations, and – at its heart – an ordinary kid who does extraordinary things!

Robert Munsch wrote this story for Jamaal, a boy he met at the army base school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, who was the oldest of his siblings and wanted his own big room too!

Contributor Bio

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than 80 books in print, including such bestsellers as The Paper Bag Princess, We Share Everything!, So Much Snow! and Love You Forever. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children – and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario. Visit him online at <http://scholastic.ca/munsch/>.

DAVE WHAMOND is the creator of Oddrey and My Think-a-ma-Jink, both winners of the Blue Spruce Award. He illustrated the Robert Munsch book Braids! He also has a syndicated cartoon strip called Reality Check, which appears daily in a number of North American newspapers. Dave lives in Calgary, Alberta.

Meet David Suzuki (Scholastic Canada Biography)

By (author) Elizabeth MacLeod 🍁, Illustrated by Mike Deas 🍁

On Sale: September 7, 2021 | Hardcover $16.99

Meet David Suzuki: scientist, educator, and environmental activist!

The award-winning Scholastic Canada Biography series highlights the lives of remarkable Canadians whose achievements have inspired and changed the lives of those who followed.

As a young boy, David Suzuki loved spending time in the glorious British Columbia outdoors with his father. The racist policies against Japanese Canadians during World War II put an abrupt end to that when David's family was sent to a Japanese internment camp in 1942. After the war, the Suzuki family was forced to leave B.C., settling in Ontario. David immersed himself in learning, earning a PhD in zoology, becoming a professor, and eventually taking his love of science education into the public sphere with his shows on CBC radio and television. His connection to nature, commitment as a scientist and media presence found David among the first to raise the alarm on how human behaviour is endangering all life on Earth. He has worked tirelessly to bring attention and importantly, offer solutions to this critical issue. Climate change is one of the most important issues of our time, and David Suzuki has led the charge in education and activism in Canada for decades.

Written by award-winning author Elizabeth MacLeod, this portrait of David Suzuki couples simple yet compelling writing with comic-flavoured illustrations by Mike Deas that help bring this fascinating story to life!

Contributor Bio

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many Canadian nonfiction titles including the Canada Close Up series titles Canadian Government, Canada's Trees and Canadian Money in addition to the award-winning Scholastic Canada Biography series and Canada Year-By-Year. She lives in Toronto, Ontario and enjoys reading, swimming, theatre, botany and tap dancing.

MIKE DEAS is an author-illustrator of graphic novels, most recently Dalen and Gole: Scandal in Port Angus. His love for illustrative storytelling comes from an early love of reading and drawing while growing up on Saltspring Island, British Columbia.

“If you hear the message “You can do it!” enough times, you believe it. I take a deep breath. I know I can do it.” – Andre De Grasse

EVERYONE GETS NERVOUS. I DON'T LET THAT STOP ME.

I walk onto the track. The cheering is loud. I start feeling my butterflies. I remember the first time I got them. I had to give a speech in front of my whole school. I felt shy. What if I made a mistake and everybody saw?

My teacher told me, “Don’t worry about failing, just do your best. That is what success is.”

And then, in front of the whole school, I dropped my cue cards.

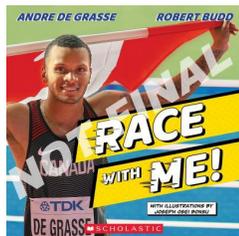

Everyone started to laugh, but I didn’t give up. I kept talking. When I finished, everyone cheered. I was proud of myself. I loved that feeling.

I still have butterflies, but now I know they just mean I am excited to run.

ANDRE DE GRASSE did not begin running track seriously until he was 17 years old and he's never looked back. Just three years after his first race, Andre won two gold medals at the Pan Am Games in Toronto and made history at the 2016 Summer Games in Rio, becoming the first Canadian athlete to win Olympic medals in all three sprint events. He is also the creator of the Andre De Grasse Family Foundation, which is committed to inspiring and empowering youth through access to sport, education and healthcare.

ROBERT BUDD is an author, oral historian, and radio host who has written more than a dozen books for children and adults, many of them in collaboration with renowned artist Roy Henry Vickers. When he is not writing he can often be found playing baseball or hockey, coaching kids, or playing his guitar. He lives in Victoria, B.C. with his family and rescue dog.

JOSEPH OSEI BONSU's work is inspired by the comic books and animated shows that he grew up watching. He studied art and animation at Seneca College and is co-founder of Heroes of the World, a comic-inspired brand that features heroes and villains that represent different countries around the world. My class is making cards for Mother's Day. Drawing hearts with waxy crayons and pasting bright tissue paper flowers with white glue that smells funny and drips in thick globs onto their desks. Maya draws stick figures on her card. A little girl in a bright yellow dress, just like hers. A smiling woman stands beside her. MOMMY, she slowly writes in block letters, her pink tongue poking out as she works. She sees me watching and stares down at my blank paper. "You don't have a mommy," she says. "Yes, I do!" I tell her, quickly drawing my own stick figures and trying hard to remember her smile.

My heart aches for her. My beautiful girl. My kamâmakos. I will always be your mother, Kateri. Even if I'm not there, sleeping, dreaming of you, while you make me a special surprise breakfast, with a card on a tray. Even if you sometimes forget my face. Just look in the mirror, my love. You have your mother's smile.

A beautiful, transcendent story of a mother-daughter connection that persists through tragedy and across time.

Kateri is a young Cree girl, growing up in the care of her grandmother. We see her reaching important milestones: her first day of school, first dance, first date, wedding, first child. Her mother is absent, but not gone, watching her child growing up without her.

Told in alternating voices of child and mother, Missing Nimâmâ is a story of love, loss, and acceptance, showing the human side of a national tragedy. Dreamlike illustrations by François Thisdale enrich Kateri's emotional journey. An afterword by the author provides a simple, age-appropriate context for young readers. Includes Cree words and glossary.

Bunny goes out the door.
"Have a good day!" says Dad.
"I love you."

Choose Kindness

By (author) Ruth Ohi 🍁, Illustrated by Ruth Ohi 🍁

On Sale: Jul 06, 2021 | Hardcover $16.99

A gentle friendship story that celebrates small acts of kindness!

This is Bunny feeling small, not wanting to leave the bed at all.

Bunny is having a tough morning, but manages to brighten up and get out the door. Pretty soon Bunny comes across Beetle, who needs a little cheering too. Bunny can do that! Bunny and Beetle band together and they come across Marten. They are just what Marten needed, and the three carry on. Along the way they pick up Wren and Lemming too.

Their care and attention to each other's feelings boosts everyone's mood. When they find Bear, who has forgotten something important, they joyfully come together to make a big difference.

Lyrical text is infused with Ruth Ohi's signature energy, humour, and depth. This touching story of friendship is a great reminder of the power of kindness and empathy in building community.

Oliver Bounces Back!

By (author) Alison Hughes , Illustrated by Charlene Chua
On Sale: August 3, 2021 | Hardcover $16.99

Oliver's day has started out lousy — can he turn his luck around?

Eyewitness testimony confirms that Oliver is having a pretty lousy day. By the time he gets to school (late), he's tangled with the hairbrush, stepped in dog drool, burnt his toast, and been hit in the head by his little sister's gooey banana. At school, the pile-on of bad luck continues, and when someone takes over Oliver's square on the reading-time carpet — that's the last straw!

Oliver gets mad, gets quiet, gets sad, starts to talk, and then really takes charge. By lunch recess, he has the whole class literally bouncing around the playground, as he's discovered the exhilaration of bouncing back from a bad day.

Oliver Bounces Back! is a delightful and powerful story about cultivating resilience and bouncing back from adversity. The interactive style of the story, coupled with extra tips and tools on anxiety and resiliency at the back of the book, will leave readers feeling empowered to take on their own bad days.

Five Busy Beavers

By (author) Stella Partheniou Grasso , Illustrated by Christine Battuz
On Sale: Aug 03, 2021 | Board book $9.99

Join five little beavers and their playful friends in this countdown to fun – now available as a board book!

Five busy beavers building up a dam, closing up the river where the salmon swim.

Gnawing down trees and ferrying the logs.

Slapping on the mud that they gathered from the bog.

Along came a muskrat who wanted to play, and one little beaver swam away.

A catchy rhyme counts down from five until there is only one hardworking beaver left. The others disappeared one by one, called away to play by their animal friends—a muskrat, a heron, a frog and a turtle. When the fifth tired beaver finally heads back to the lodge he finds a big surprise!

Brady Brady and the Missed Hatrick

By (author) Mary Shaw 🇨🇦, Illustrated by Chuck Temple 🇨🇦

On Sale: May 04, 2021 | Paperback $6.99

Brady Brady books are hockey — with heart!

A big snowfall has blanketed Brady's street. But it's hard to focus on shoveling when there's a game of shinny going on and Brady doesn't exactly finish his chore. Later, under the guise of taking his dog Hatrick for a walk, Brady ties him up and rejoins the game.

Brady returns home tired but happy — that shinny game was epic! But his good mood suddenly turns when Brady realizes he's left his faithful friend behind... and now Hatrick is missing! Will Brady find his beloved canine pal?

The Brady series is much-loved by teachers and coaches for its engaging character education themes. In Brady Brady and the Missed Hatrick Brady and his family confront issues focusing on responsibility and consequences.

Reviews

"... the Brady Brady series shows young children being confronted by child-appropriate difficulties, such as teasing and pushy parents, and finding ways, sometimes with some adult help, to solve them. Chuck Temple's cartoon-style illustrations add a great deal to the books' pleasure, and his attention to details make the local ice rinks and their dressing rooms come alive."

The Lunch Club face off against a scary, hairy foe in this Halloween mystery!

Tia and Leo narrowly escaped the clutches of the awful alien Zaralgax, only to face the terror of the . . . Pleasantwood Elementary Science Fair? Thanks to Mr. Peabody, their exhibit is about stamps — a subject so terrifyingly boring they might not survive until the next Lunch Club meet-up.

Against all odds, they do, just in time to plan their costumes for the big Halloween party. But when a werewolf who looks oddly familiar makes off with the school principal, Tia and Leo realize their supernatural problems are far from over. A sinister force has decided to destroy the Lunch Club once and for all. This brand new villain makes Zaralgax seem downright cute (no easy feat — have you seen the guy?) and it's up to Tia and Leo to save their legacy and get Mr. Peabody out of a particularly hairy situation.

Link, Michael, and Dana live in a quiet town. But it's woken up very quickly when someone sneaks into school and vandalizes it with a swastika.

With Linked, Gordon Korman poses a mystery for all readers where the who did it? isn't nearly as important as the why?

Excerpt from Linked

I check the phone. Dead. Just like I suspected. I shut my locker and turn to leave.

Only I don't leave. I freeze.

I blink and blink again, struggling to wrap my mind around what I'm seeing.

It's spray-painted in red on the blank expanse of wall above the staircase leading to the second story—that large X with each arm continued at a right angle.

I stare at it in horror and disbelief, hoping that my eyes are deceiving me and this ugly red symbol is something other than what I know it is.

A swastika.

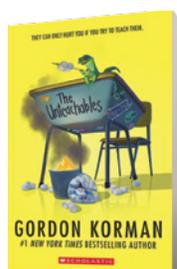

"Michael?"

Mr. Kennedy's voice startles me out of my state of shock. I drop my phone, which bounces on the floor. It's probably cracked, possibly ruined, but I can't tear my gaze from the symbol on the wall.

An unforgettable novel from the New York Times bestselling Gordon Korman.

Link, Michael, and Dana live in a quiet town. But it's woken up very quickly when someone sneaks into school and vandalizes it with a swastika.

Nobody can believe it. How could such a symbol of hate end up in the middle of their school? Who would do such a thing?

Because Michael was the first person to see it, he's the first suspect. Because Link is one of the most popular guys in school, everyone's looking to him to figure it out. And because Dana's the only Jewish girl in the whole town, everyone's treating her more like an outsider than ever.

The mystery deepens as more swastikas begin to appear. Some students decide to fight back and start a project to bring people together instead of dividing them further. The closer Link, Michael, and Dana get to the truth, the more there is to face—not just the crimes of the present, but the crimes of the past.

With Linked, Gordon Korman, the author of the acclaimed novel Restart, poses a mystery for all readers where the who did it? isn't nearly as important as the why?

War Stories

by Gordon Korman
 May 04, 2021 Paperback , Trade $9.99 CAD

A story of telling truth from lies – and finding out what being a hero really means.

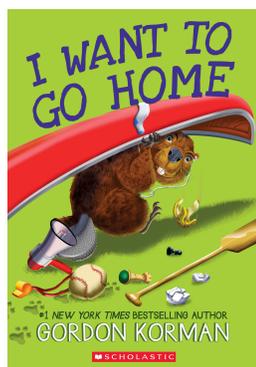

There are two things Trevor loves more than anything else: playing war-based video games, and his great-grandfather Jacob, who is a true-blue, bona fide war hero. At the height of the war, Jacob helped liberate a small French village, and was given a hero's welcome upon his return to America.

Now it's decades later, and Jacob wants to retrace the steps he took during the war - from training to invasion to the village he is said to have saved. Trevor thinks this is the coolest idea ever. But as they get to the village, Trevor discovers there's more to the story than what he's heard his whole life, causing him to wonder about his great-grandfather's heroism, the truth about the battle he fought, and importance of genuine valor.

I Want to Go Home

by Gordon Korman
 May 04, 2021 Paperback , Trade $9.99 CAD

Gordon Korman's uproarious, outrageous, and all-too-familiar summer camp adventure is BACK in this 40th anniversary edition!

Rudy Miller really isn't into the whole camping thing. So when his parents send him to summer camp "for his own good," all he wants to do is go home.

Rudy teams up with his cabin-mate Mike for a series of carefully planned — yet hilariously bungled — escape attempts. Unfortunately, their counsellor (and nemesis) Chip is as determined to keep them there as they are to get away.

Rudy and Mike spend their days plotting, playing chess, and working off punishments for their failed escapes.

Hmmm, maybe it isn't such a bad way to spend the summer after all . . .

Dragon Assassin: Royal BloodBy (author) Arthur Slade

On Sale: Jun 01, 2021 | Paperback $14.99

The thrilling sequel to award-winning author Arthur Slade's fantasy adventure!

Carmen has defeated her twin brother, Corwin, thanks to the pact she made with Brax the dragon. Now it's time for her to fulfill her end of the bargain.

Brax takes Carmen to Drachia, the land of beasts, where Carmen soon learns that Brax had been banished from his father's kingdom for accidentally killing his sister, Brenna.

But soon after their arrival in the dragon capital, the two of them are quickly embroiled in plots and schemes to take the crown away from Brax's father, King Xerx.

When Carmen becomes separated from Brax, she finds herself alone as an outsider in a strange land where she is seen as either a slave or food. She must use her assassin training, and the magical bond she shares with Brax, to survive and set out to save him.

Arthur Slade delivers with another exciting, fast-paced read full of action, magic and a healthy dash of humour.

Contributor BioARTHUR SLADE was raised on a ranch in the Cypress Hills of Saskatchewan. He wanted to be a writer from the time he was young, and finished his first novel when he was still in his teens. ScreamersBy (author) Joel A. Sutherland

On Sale: Aug 03, 2021 | Paperback $8.99

New middle-grade horror from the award-winning author of the Haunted Canada series!

When the hit television show Screamers announces a contest for young fans to appear on an upcoming episode, it's all kids can talk about. So when Sai, Jason, and Aaliyah, strangers from different parts of the country, are selected from the thousands of applicants, they can't believe their luck. They pack their bags and travel to Winnipeg, excited to work with Zoë Winter, the show's biggest star!

Zoë is famous, respected, and making more money than she ever thought she would... and she's not even in high school yet! But money doesn't buy happiness, and Zoë longs for a normal life with normal friends, which is why she's just as excited about the contest as the three lucky winners. But little does she know that her life is about to imitate her art while filming the latest episode on location.

The creepy set, an abandoned amusement park called Pennyland, is haunted by a real ghost straight out of their worst nightmares: the park's original mascot, Beaugard, an old clown with smeared makeup and threadbare clothes. Beaugard isn't willing to accept that Pennyland closed years ago, and he's determined to stage one final show for his captive young audience...

Zoë's talent for screaming is going to be put to good use. Sai, Jason and Aaliyah are going to prove themselves quick studies. And their visit to Pennyland is going to be anything but amusing.

The Journey of Little Charlie (Scholastic Gold)By (author) Christopher Paul Curtis

On Sale: May 04, 2021 | Paperback $11.99

The Geoffrey Bilson Award Winner by Christopher Paul Curtis!

Twelve-year-old Charlie is down on his luck: His sharecropper father just died and Cap'n Buck — the most fearsome man in Possum Moan, South Carolina — has come to collect a debt. Fearing for his life, Charlie strikes a deal with Cap'n Buck and agrees to track down some folks accused of stealing from the cap'n and his boss. It's not too bad of a bargain for Charlie... until he comes face-to-face with the fugitives and discovers their true identities. Torn between his guilty conscience and his survival instinct, Charlie needs to figure out his next move — and soon. It's only a matter of time before Cap'n Buck catches on.

Contributor Bio

CHRISTOPHER PAUL CURTIS was awarded both a Newbery Honor and a Coretta Scott King Honor for his debut book, The Watsons Go to Birmingham -- 1963, and won the Newbery Medal and the Coretta Scott King Award for his second book, Bud, Not Buddy. Mr. Curtis is also the author of the Golden Kite Award-winning Bucking the Sarge, as well as Mr. Chickee's Funny Money, Mr. Chickee's Messy Mission, and the Newbery Honor book, CLA Book of the Year and the TD Canadian Children's Book Award winner, Elijah of Buxton.

Mission Mumbai

By (author) Mahtab Narsimhan

On Sale: May 04, 2021 | Paperback $8.99

Two friends, one deep alliance, the trip of a lifetime!

Travel to the colourful and chaotic streets of India from the comfort of your home in this hilarious and heartfelt story about friendship and family.

When aspiring photographer Dylan Moore is invited to join his best friend, Rohit Lal, on a family vacation to India, he jumps at the chance to escape his parents' bitter fighting and go on an exciting journey just like his Lord of the Rings heroes, Frodo and Sam — except with less walking and lots of amazing food and photo ops.

How hard can it be for a street-smart New Yorker to navigate India?

Turns out, really hard. Mumbai is nothing like New York City, as Dylan discovers in his daily encounters with intense heat, massive crowds, filthy streets, and strange customs. He loves it all, and it's a great distraction from what's happening at home, but he's always one step away from disaster, despite warnings from Rohit and his mom. And when Ro's family problems threaten to cut the trip short, it seems like the two friends can't agree on anything anymore.

Will their separate goals pit them against each other, or can they set aside their differences in this epic quest for friendship and adventure?

Contributor Bio

MAHTAB NARSIMHAN is the author of several critically acclaimed books, including Silver Birch Award winner The Third Eye. Reviews

Praise for Mission Mumbai:

"An adrenaline-charged exploration of Mumbai with two likable guides." — Kirkus Reviews

"Dylan and Rohit are on a voyage of discovery that explores their emotional lives as well as the spellbinding streets of Mumbai, making this a very entertaining and rewarding book to read." — National Reading Campaign

"The boy's situation, in which a friendship that jugged along well in one setting strains at the seams in another, rings true, and the fact that the tension manifests in sulkiness and sniping rather than a set-to augments the credibility." — Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books

Upside-Down Magic 7 Hide and Seek (Upside-Down Magic #7)

by Sarah Mlynowski, Lauren Myracle
Jun 01, 2021 Paperback, Trade $7.99 CAD

The Upside-Down Magic kids are back in another topsy-turvy adventure in the next installment of this New York Times bestselling series, now a Disney Channel Original Movie!

When Nory's magic first appeared, her father wanted her to go to fancy, selective Sage Academy, where he is the headmaster. But Nory's magic went upside-down at the worst possible moment . . . and she was sent to Dunwiddle Middle School instead!

The good news? Nory loves Dunwiddle, and her best friends have upside-down magic, too!

The bad news? When a flood wrecks Dunwiddle, Nory and her UDM friends are forced to relocate . . . to Sage Academy!

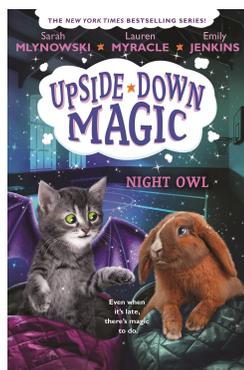

Sure, there's a magical skunk garden, a school-wide Hide and Seek night, and expensive gloves that help Nory's friend Elliott with his flaring, but Nory's father and the rest of the teachers are super strict, and Nory doesn't feel like she fits in . . . at all. When she's offered the chance to stay at Sage for good, she has to decide where she belongs . . . and if Sage Academy can learn that magic comes in all shapes and sizes.

Upside-Down Magic 8 Night Owl (Upside-Down Magic #8)

by Emily Jenkins, Lauren Myracle
Jun 01, 2021 Hardcover $22.99 CAD

The Upside-Down Magic kids are back in another topsy-turvy adventure in the next installment of this New York Times bestselling series!

It's Big Night in Dunwiddle . . . and that means the whole school has a sleepover like no other. For one night every year, magic students run through the halls, hunting for the objects that will win them a super special prize.

Nory is super excited for the scavenger hunt. Not only because she likes winning, but also because if her team wins, she thinks there's a chance her best friend Elliott won't move away to attend super snobby Sage Academy.

Sebastian is a little less excited once the hunt is on. Yes, he has magical powers that help his team — like being able to see invisible things or anything that makes a sound. The problem is that the really loud sounds are hurting him . . . and nobody seems to care.

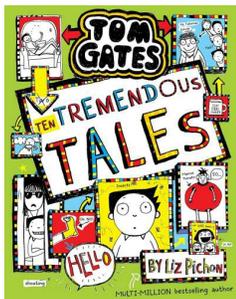

The kids in Upside-Down Magic know their five F's (Flares, Flyers, Fuzzies, Flickers, and Fluxers) — but to win this night, a sixth F is the most important . . . Friendship.

A note from the author:

Do YOU find math stressful? Does even thinking about it freak you out? I get it. Once upon a time, that was me. So I wrote this book because I wanted to show kids – and grown-ups! – that there is NO such thing as a “math person” and that literally everyone can feel great about math. Yes, even YOU!

This full-colour book tackles Measurement, Lines, Angles, Coordinates, Shapes, Perimeter and Area, Time, Money and more! Peppered throughout are pointers on avoiding common mistakes and awesome tricks and tips for maximizing marks.

Math positivity advocate Vanessa Vakharia also puts the FUN in fundamentals with refresher tips on the basics.

Contributor Bio

VANESSA VAKHARIA is a dedicated teacher, published author and leading expert in the field of youth engagement in education. She runs a math and science tutoring centre and is a frequent speaker at math education conferences. Vanessa is particularly passionate about engaging young women in traditionally male-dominated STEM fields and has presented her findings internationally in an interactive and accessible workshop for young people, academics, and educators. She makes appearances on City TV, Global Television and CBC radio throughout the school year with advice for parents and students, and her research continues to be published in magazines, parent blogs, national newspapers and academic journals. And if all that's not enough, she's the singer in a totally cool band.

HYEIN LEE is an engineer-turned-illustrator and motion graphics designer. She gave up her engineering career to pursue her artistic dream; she has less money now, but somehow is a lot happier. Hyein's work is populated by humble and friendly monsters . . . and her lettering is fantastic. Hyein was born in Korea and came to Canada when she was 14. She now lives in her favourite city, Toronto, Ontario. Visit her at www.hyeinlee.com.
