Aventure chez les pirates

Jay Runs Away

A pirate-packed picture book about the arrival of a new sibling — with lift-the-flap letters! Author Dawn Mcniff perfectly voices Jay and his antics, paired with swash-buckling mischief and humour from Le voleur de feuilles illustrator, Nicola Slater.

There's a new baby at home, and Jay isn't sure about her AT ALL. There's only one option — for Jay to run away with the pirates! Sounds fun and full of adventure, right? Well, Jay's letters home soon reveal life on the ship isn't all pirate parties, sea shanties, and pieces of eight... In fact, perhaps a little sister isn't so bad? And maybe Jay would rather come home after all?

This funny, pirate-tastic story is told entirely through letters between Jay and his family — with six fold-out letters to open and look inside. Paired with Nicola Slater's artwork, which brings lashings of character to every scene, this picture book is one to treasure!

Un ami... c'est un ami

A Friend Is a Friend Is a Friend

In this companion to best-selling titles Une famille... c'est une famille and Un enfant... c'est un enfant, a child explores how to make a friend.

When a child arrives at summer camp, they see a lot of other kids. Will any of them want to be their friend?

One by one, the kids share their thoughts on friendship. One child makes friends by asking questions, while another says you can be friends even if you don't speak the same language! Listening to each other's stories, liking the same things, and showing kindness are among the many ways of being a friend. And in the end — whoever you are — the best way to make a friend is to be one!

Author Sara O'Leary and illustrator Qin Leng have created a delightful, heartfelt, inclusive book about making and being a friend — the final title in their trilogy.

SARA O'LEARY is a writer of fiction for both adults and children. She is the author of the award-winning series of Henry books, This Is Sadie, illustrated by Julie Morstad, and You Are One, illustrated by Karen Klassen. A graduate of the UBC Creative Writing Program, she has taught screenwriting and writing for children at Concordia University in Montreal.

QIN LENG is the illustrator of many picture books for children, including Hana Hashimoto, Sixth Violin by Chieri Uegaki, which was nominated for the Governor General's Award. Qin was born in Shanghai, and now lives and works as a designer and illustrator in Toronto, Ontario.

Où est ma grand-maman?

Where Did She Go?

The perfect book for opening up honest conversations with young children about grief and death, whether they have lost a loved one, or are simply curious and at the age of asking questions.

When a little girl hears people saying how sorry they are that she's lost her very special grandma, she only has one question...where did she go?

Grandma's not under the sofa, behind the flower patch, or even at their favourite spot in the park, so where is she?

Perhaps Mum can help her daughter to understand what has happened and find comfort in the memories left behind.

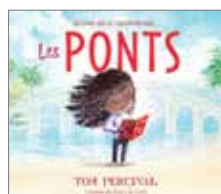

Written with gentle humour and a lightness of touch by comedian and creator of Griefcast, Cariad Lloyd, and illustrated by Tom Percival, creator of the bestselling picture books Le souci de Calie, La journée gâchée de Béa, and Invisible, among others.

CARIAD LLOYD is a writer, actor, comedian, podcaster, and improviser. ## Marchons ensemble

Walking Together

This bestselling, innovative picture book introduces readers to the concept of Etuaptmumk — or Two-Eyed Seeing, the gift of multiple perspectives in the Mi'kmaq language — as we follow a group of young children connecting to nature as their teacher.

A poetic, joyful celebration of the Lands and Waters as spring unfolds: we watch for Robin's return, listen for Frog's croaking, and wonder at maple tree's gift of sap. Grounded in Etuaptmumk, also known as Two-Eyed Seeing, which braids together the strengths of Indigenous and non-Indigenous ways of knowing, and the Mi'kmaq concept of Netukulimk, meaning to protect Mother Earth for the ancestors, present, and future generations, Marchons ensemble nurtures respectful, reciprocal, responsible relationships with the Land and Water, plant-life, animals, and other-than-human beings for the benefit of all.

ELDER DR. ALBERT D. MARSHALL is from the Moose Clan of the Mi'kmaq Nation, Eskasoni First Nation in Unama'ki-Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. A fluent speaker of Mi'kmaq, he has brought forth the concept of Etuaptmumk/Two-Eyed Seeing which honours the strengths of both Indigenous and non-Indigenous knowledges and ways of knowing for the benefit of all.

LOUISE ZIMANYI, who is of French-Canadian and Hungarian descent, lives as a guest in Tkaronto/Toronto, Treaty 13 territory. As a professor and researcher, she is co-learning from and with the Land and wise teachers, co-transforming early childhood pedagogy and practice.

EMILY KEWAGESHIG is an Anishinaabe artist and visual storyteller whose work captures the interconnection of life forms using both traditional and contemporary materials and methods. She creates artwork that highlights Indigenous knowledge and culture. Emily is from Saugeen First Nation in Ontario, Canada.

L'éblouissante Edwina

The Fabulous Edweena

Hello world, meet Edwina!

Edwin loves his sister Patsy's closet. He adores dresses and earrings and boots with high heels. And when he's finished getting dressed, Edwin is transformed...into the fabulous Edwina!

Today is the figure skating competition at school and Edwin has decided to compete as Edwina. What will people say when they meet her for the first time? Can a boy in drag win the competition? Edwina will have to give her best performance ever to find out!

EDWIN DUMONT was born in Parry Sound to a family with Ojibway heritage. His mother is a member of Henvey Inlet First Nation. He has always been called Edweena. Cinderella said, "A dream is a wish your heart makes," and Edwin's dream of being a writer came true. He owns a hair salon and lives with his husband in Toronto, Ontario.

MELISSA CHO is a multi-hyphenated Korean-Canadian creative designer based in Toronto, Ontario. Having built a career in illustration and animation, she celebrates the ebbs and flows of life and holds a passion for intentional and charming storytelling. She keeps busy through personal creative ventures, from handmade crafts to traditional illustrations.

★ PRAISE

"A figure-skating competition offers an opportunity for a child to explore individual expression in this personal-feeling picture book by Dumont, who is of Ojibway heritage.... Edwin transforms into Edweena Louisa: it's 'the first time my classmates will see me wear a dress and heels.' Fearing disapproval despite the excitement, Edweena heads to the rink, where affirming reactions lead to the triumphant child feeling that 'I've already won.' Cho's scratchy, star-splashed illustrations portray would-be naysayers using monochromatic filters, while Edweena appears vibrant on every page."

~ Publishers Weekly

"In this gentle tale, a young figure skater named Edwin borrows his sister's clothes for competition.... In a unique narrative choice, readers never learn if Edweena wins the competition. The self-confidence and acceptance gained throughout the story are the true rewards. ... A heartwarming story that will enrich any collection."

~ School Library Journal

"A heartening, picture-book introduction to drag.... The book's illustrations are bright, celebratory, and full of movement, though at times, in contrast, there are shadows in the background of the people who make Edwin anxious. Cho makes sure the reader remembers that it is Edwin who is underneath Edweena's fabulous appearance. Though his drag is beautiful, it is Edwin's bravery and confidence that we most admire and learn from."

The New Girl

Instagram sensation and Tapas webcomic superstar Cassandra Calin takes inspiration from her own immigration experience in this funny, feel-good middle-grade graphic novel series about change, friendship, and growing up.

N° 2 - Premier amour

#2: First Crush

Cassandra Calin returns with this charming and comical follow-up to La nouvelle, her long-form graphic novel debut that became a New York Times, USA Today, Publishers Weekly, and Indie bestseller! This middle-grade graphic novel about crushing and being crushed is the perfect next read for fans of romantic comedies and slice-of-life stories.

Lia is finally feeling settled into her new life. Her friends are amazing, her French is improving, and her periods...ugh, those are still terrible. But Lia's crush, Julien, is noticing her. Lia thinks he likes her, but she can't tell for sure. And while she's obsessing over him, Lia's not noticing another person's growing crush on HER. With so many big feelings and even bigger changes, could things get any worse?

In this follow-up to the breakout hit La nouvelle, Lia's relationships — with her friends, her crush, her mom, and even herself — are all tested like never before.

CASSANDRA CALIN is a cartoonist and humourist best known for her semi-autobiographical webcomic series, Cassandra Comics, in which she talks about her life with curly hair, high expectations, and other daily problems. Originally from Romania, Cassandra immigrated to Canada when she was a child and later earned her BA in graphic design from L'Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM). La nouvelle is her long-form graphic novel debut.

★ PRAISE FOR LA NOUVELLE

"An enchanting, adorable, immersive story... Calin masterfully weaves variation throughout the panels to show full experiences with incredible details in scenery, facial expressions, and colour that flow easily. The book is engrossing and spectacular, and Calin perfectly portrays the awe, excitement, awkwardness, and confusion of middle school... A must-purchase for any and all tweens and teens who are ravenous for lighthearted, absorbing, and authentic coming-of-age realistic graphic fiction."

~ School Library Journal, starred review

"Calin's illustrations flow effectively and provide humour; her text bubbles also creatively visualize, through colour coding for different languages and scribbles to represent French words Lia can't understand, the process of acquiring a new language... Fans of Raina Telgemeier, Victoria Jamieson, and Svetlana Chmakova will rejoice. Funny, awkward, and exuberant."

Ton camion

Your Truck

From Caldecott Medalist Jon Klassen comes the first board book in a new series for the youngest of children.

This is your truck.

It is yours to have.

Jon Klassen brings his minimalist's touch to a soothing story of a simple object that a child can command and befriend, one that is there whenever the child chooses to visit it. Building on the quiet but evocative world he created in Ta ferme, Ta forêt, and Ton île, Jon Klassen invites young children to consider more things that are theirs and theirs alone, reinforcing that they have a right to things like solitude, exploration, and companionship.

JON KLASSEN is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book Ce n'est pas mon chapeau won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. Originally from Niagara Falls, Ontario, Jon Klassen now lives in Los Angeles.

Un ours pour déjeuner!

Bear for Breakfast

Donovan is hungry for a special kind of breakfast... BEAR!

It's breakfast time and Donovan knows exactly what he wants this morning! Not eggs, not pancakes, not cereal. No, what he wants is BEAR, just like his grandfather used to eat for breakfast!

So, Donovan sets off to bag a bear of his own, going on an adventurous hunt through the woods, where he stalks and is stalked by an ant, a squirrel, and a dog — but they are not bears, so he shoos them away!

When Donovan finally meets a real, big, and growling bear, he quickly learns that sometimes breakfast tastes best when it doesn't have any teeth!

This story was inspired by Donovan, a first-grader in La Loche, Saskatchewan, a Chippewan community in Northern Saskatchewan that Robert Munsch visited in January 1990. When Robert asked what the kids liked to eat, Donovan said that he liked to eat BEAR!

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than eighty books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac, On partage tout!, La tempête du siècle, and Je t'aimerai toujours. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021 he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

JAY ODJICK is an artist and writer from the Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg Algonquin community, just outside of Maniwaki, Quebec. He has created comic books and produced the animated TV series Kagagi: The Raven, which airs in Canada, the US, and Australia. He illustrated Robert Munsch's picture books Vilains maringouins!, Un ours pour déjeuner! as well as L'océan pour toujours, which appears in the anthology Avalanche de Munsch. He is thrilled to be able to join forces with Robert Munsch to bring stories about today's Indigenous kids to a broad audience.

M. Renard et le grand jeu du non!

Mr Fox's Game of No

In a hilarious interactive picture book, the Geisel Award–winning creators of See the Cat and Désolé : L'art de s'excuser challenge kids to answer every question with "NO" — even when their brain keeps insisting "YES."

Can you beat M. Renard at his Game of No? The rules are simple: every time he asks a question, you must respond with "NO." If you accidentally say "YES," then it's back to the beginning of the book for you, where you must start all over again. Are you ready? (Oops!) Do you live on planet Earth? Are you stronger than a baby? What does Y-E-S spell? (Argh!)

Kids will giggle uncontrollably as they gamely aim to avoid M. Renard's clever traps — but just ask them if they'd like to read this book again, and they won't be able to resist: "YES!"

DAVID LaROCHELLE is the author of many books for children including Désolé : L'art de s'excuser, How Martha Saved Her Parents from Green Beans, The Best Pet of All, and The Haunted Hamburger and Other Ghostly Stories. David lives in White Bear Lake, Minnesota.

MIKE WOHNOUTKA is the illustrator of many books for children, including Désolé : L'art de s'excuser, Moo! (an ALA Notable book and a Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books Blue Ribbon selection), Can't Sleep Without Sheep, Just Like My Papa, Stay Close to Mama, Dad's First Day, Hanukkah Bear, and This is Not a Cat. A graduate of the Savannah College of Art and Design, Mike lives with his wife and two children in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

★ PRAISE

"LaRochelle and Wohnoutka, the brilliantly witty writer and illustrator whose book See the Cat: Three Stories about a Dog won the Theodor Seuss Geisel Award, take kids on a vicarious adventure of sneaky questions designed to trip up and amuse listeners in equal measure.... A clever, hilarious picture book!"

~ Booklist, starred review

"LaRochelle delightfully upends expectations in this tribute to the power of no.... A laugh-out-loud marvel of excess and pacing.... There's no penalty for re-reading this hilarious, irresistible book — perhaps readers will out-manipulate M. Renard after all! You can bet on this sideshow for an interactive good time."

Nicolas fou de soccer

Soccer Crazy

Nicolas is gearing up for a big soccer match, but will his family survive all of his practicing?

Nicolas is dribbling and kicking his soccer ball all through the house, much to the irritation of his parents and sister. Fed up, Dad throws the ball outside. When the rest of Nicolas's team comes by to practise for the big tournament later that day, havoc is wreaked on the house and yard. Dad can't get them to the park fast enough. The question is: will their edge-of-the-seat game convince even Dad that soccer is great?

A delightful re-issue of the classic story from Quebecois author Gilles Tibo and illustrator Bruno St-Aubin, whose previous picture books featuring Nicolas include Grouille-toi, Nicolas!, Nicolas, roi du filet!, and Nicolas joueur étoile.

GILLES TIBO has written and illustrated more than a hundred children's books, including the Petit chevalier series for Scholastic. He was a Canada Council fellow and is the recipient of many awards, including two Mr. Christie's Book Awards, and two Governor General's Awards, for Simon et les boîtes de carton and Noémie: Le Secret de Madame Lumbago. He is a two-time nominee for the Hans Christian Andersen Prize. He lives in Montreal, Quebec.

BRUNO ST-AUBIN has illustrated over sixty children's books, including nine in the Nicolas series, Sadie the Ballerina, and George's Antlers. His favourite activities when he is not illustrating include soccer, cross-country skiing, cycling, jogging and playing hockey. He lives in Quebec.

★ PRAISE

"Gilles Tibo and Bruno St-Aubin's Nicolas fou de soccer is a fun picture book about good sportsmanship both on and off the playing field... Tibo's writing is snappy and dynamic, with a great tempo, and effectively employs onomatopoeia and repetition. St-Aubin's watercolour/pencil crayon illustrations are hilarious and energetic."

Nouveau départ

Winging It

From the Eisner-nominated creators of bestsellers Allergique and Coincée comes a charming and funny graphic novel about family, friendship, and self-discovery!

Twelve-year-old Luna never wanted to move from California to Virginia, even if it is near historic Washington, D.C., and no matter how excited her dad is to introduce her to the area where her late mother grew up. And she definitely doesn't want to live with a very formal grandmother she barely knows. But during a visit to the National Museum of Natural History, the rarely seen luna moth for which Luna was named sparks her curiosity. Using her mother's old naturalist notebooks as a guide, Luna, who has always preferred the indoors, endeavors to see a real luna moth with her own eyes. Learning more about nature just might help her make a new friend, figure out how to feel at home in her new life, and understand the mother she never got the chance to know.

MEGAN WAGNER LLOYD is the co-creator, with Michelle Mee Nutter, of Allergique and Coincée, both instant bestsellers. Megan is also the author of several picture books, including Paper Mice, Building Books, Finding Wild, and Fort-Building Time, and also Haven, a novel. She lives in the Washington, D.C. area.

MICHELLE MEE NUTTER is the co-creator, with Megan Wagner Lloyd, of Allergique and Coincée, both instant bestsellers. Michelle graduated with a degree in illustration from the Massachusetts College of Art and Design. Her work has been recognized by the Society of Illustrators, 3x3 Illustration, Creative Quarterly, and more. Michelle lives in Boston, Massachusetts.

★ PRAISE

"Eye-catching earth-toned colour palettes emphasize the role that nature plays in healing old wounds in this gentle graphic novel."

~ Publishers Weekly

"This gentle, warm story...has friendship and nature at its very core. Snippets about flora and fauna are tucked into the story, presented with joy and intriguing details, and the text and the illustrations work together seamlessly. A tender story that floats as lightly as a moth."

Chère classe 1B

Dear Classroom 1B

Meet Norm — a hamster who knows his boundaries!

Okay, 1B.

We need to talk. The paper rolls you pushed into my house? Those are a win. I'll shred them to make my place cozy.

But do you know what's NOT cozy? Being picked up and smooshed in your arms. Not everyone's a hugger, okay?

Boundaries, people. Boundaries!

Norm

After a bumpy introduction to his new home, Norm — a classroom hamster — is forced to take matters into his own paws. Unless he can convince the kids of Classroom 1B how he wants to be treated, he'll be destined for a whole year of water fountain baths, interrupted naps and (ugh!) hugs. A hamster has his limits, no matter how cute and cuddly he might look!

Venue de loin

From Far Away

When Saoussan immigrated with her family from war-torn Lebanon, she was only seven years old. This picture book tells the story of how she had to adjust to her new home in Canada. She describes the frustration of not understanding the teacher when she started school, not knowing how to ask to go to the bathroom, and being terrified of a Halloween skeleton. This is the perfect book to help kids empathize with immigrant children whose experiences are very similar to Saoussan's.

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than eighty books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac, On partage tout!, La tempête du siècle, and Je t'aimerai toujours. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021 he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

SAOUSSAN ASKAR was born in Lebanon during the civil war and immigrated with her family to Toronto in 1989. Venue de loin was first published when she was in grade five.

REBECCA GREEN is an illustrator whose work has a home in young adult and chapter books. Her first picture book was Comment apprivoiser un fantôme.

★ PRAISE

"An important story to make students empathize with the challenges newcomer children face. It can also assure newcomer children that they will learn English and adjust to a new way of life."

~ CM Reviews

"Venue de loin talks beautifully about experiences of immigration from a child's perspective. This would be a great book to add to a language arts program or simply use to educate students about immigration and life in a new language. Venue de loin can be embedded throughout the curriculum, specifically focusing on equity, citizenship, and social justice."

La maison la plus effrayante de la rue

The Scariest House on the Street

Willow and her monster friends are horrified when someone — or something — has moved into their favourite place to play, the abandoned house on Shivers Street. Even scarier, the new owners have invited them over for a Halloween party.

But wait — the party's great! Everyone plays Pin the Limbs on the Zombie and the food looks tasty (even though the worms look weird). But when it's time to eat, the truth is revealed...the new neighbours are humans, the scariest monsters of all!

Or are they?

Known for his beloved and spooky Lieux hantés series, Joel A. Sutherland is bringing his spellbinding storytelling to a younger audience with his debut picture book!

JOEL A. SUTHERLAND is the Silver Birch and Hackmatack Award-winning author of numerous Lieux hantés books including Lieux hantés : La bande dessinée : N° 1 - Quatre histoires terrifiantes and Lieux hantés : Les fantômes du Québec, as well as the Red Maple Award Honour La maison abandonnée. His middle-grade fiction series, Hanté, has been praised by Goosebumps author R.L. Stine. Joel lives with his family in Southeastern Ontario, where he works as a library manager and is always on the lookout for ghosts.

Born and raised in Edmonton, Alberta, TERRY PEARSON now calls Vancouver, British Columbia, home. La maison la plus effrayante de la rue is the first children's book he has illustrated, and he hopes to create many more. When he is not drawing, he can be found writing stories, thanks to the encouragement of his Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators group. Beyond that, he likes to escape into the wilderness to immerse himself in nature. This is truly where his creativity comes from.

Les fesses hantées de mon frère

My Brother's Butt Is Haunted

Get ready for a buttload of laughs in this hilarious picture book about a pair of siblings who face a frightening question — can butts be haunted?

Two siblings are going to sleep over at Gramma and Grampa's creepy new house for the very first time. Their neighbours say there's a ghost living there, but these kids definitely aren't scared. That is...until the dead of night, when strange sounds and smells start coming from the older brother's pants. There's only one logical conclusion... His butt must be haunted!

Filled with gas, ghosts, and plenty of giggles, this book will inspire endless rereads as it turns farts into the butt of the joke.

DAN POBLOCKI is an American author of mystery, horror, and adventure novels for young people. He is the coauthor with Neil Patrick Harris of the #1 New York Times bestselling series The Magic Misfits (writing under the pen name Alec Azam). His books The Ghost of Graylock and The Haunting of Gabriel Ashe were Junior Library Guild selections and made the American Library Association's Best Fiction for Young Adults list.

JAMES REY SANCHEZ graduated from the Academy of Art University with a BFA in visual development, studies in children's book illustration, and top honours. He started his career in the animation world with Class Dojo and soon transitioned to creating picture books. Sanchez's art is uniquely stylized, focusing on the beauty of simplistic design that evokes emotion, and colour that expresses his heritage more than words can. James loves spending time traveling the world and finding new things that inspire him.

★ PRAISE

"In Sanchez's illustrations, green and yellow swirls pop against the muted gloom of the house; readers will positively smell the noxious fumes. From the opening lines — 'Tonight is a big stinkin' deal' — all the way through to the conclusion, this tale will have readers in stitches with its goofy wordplay."

~ Kirkus Reviews

"Hold onto your butts or they might get haunted!... With plenty of onomatopoeia and flatulent green clouds to animate the eerie chase that ensues, this haunted-butt mystery will entrance fans of ghosts and gas jokes alike."

Pas question de marcher pour aller à l'école!

I Will Not Walk to School

From award-winning author Naseem Hrab, an uproariously funny and totally relatable tale of a monster who loves school, but hates the commute!

It's eight o'clock, Bird tells Monster — time to walk to school. Monster stays in bed. It's not school he's resisting. He loves school! It's the getting there he hates. And, today, Monster declares, he will not walk to school. Will Bird's cajoling help? Nope. How about Bird's reminder that the pancake breakfast is today? Hmm. Will there be pepperoni and pineapple on those pancakes? Erm...yes? With maple syrup on the side? Yes. Okay. Monster will drag himself out the door. But, no matter what, he will not walk to school!

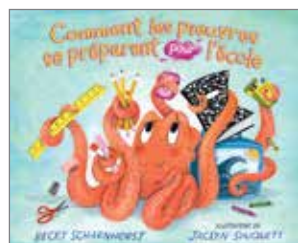

This hilarious story, told entirely in speech balloons, is sure to resonate with young children everywhere (and their grown-ups!). Kelly Collier's playful illustrations perfectly capture the emotional state of Monster and of Bird's growing exasperation.

While books about going to school are perennial favourites, this one's focus on simply getting there sets it apart from other picture books about school readiness. It's just the right weekday morning story for children who are delaying their own walks to school...and looking for ways to make them more fun!

NASEEM HRAB is the award-winning author of many stories for children, including Otis & Peanut, How to Party Like a Snail, Weekend Dad, which was a Governor General's Literary Award finalist, and The Sour Cherry Tree, which won a Governor General's Literary Award. ## Quand je serai moshom

When I'm a Moshom

This companion to the Governor General's Award-winning picture book Ligne de trappe is a loving and inspiring ode to grandparents.

When I'm a moshom, a long, long time from now, I will watch my grandchildren dance and play hockey, and I will be the loudest one cheering. I will take them on the trapline and teach them how to fish. I will feed them Bannock and share stories about our community. I will tell them I love them, just like my moshom did.

This heartwarming story thoughtfully explores the legacy of love, traditions and heritage passed down from generation to generation. Through the eyes of three siblings and their moshom (grandfather), readers are taken on a journey filled with cherished moments, from cheering at sports events to sharing traditional Cree knowledge and language. This picture book beautifully captures the bonds between grandparents and grandchildren, making it perfect for shared reading and an ideal gift for special occasions like birthdays, holidays, or family celebrations.

Includes a glossary of Swampy Cree words and an author's note.

Now the boys are taking a trip back in time to the carefree days of kindergarten, when the scariest thing they had to face was not evil mad scientists or alien cafeteria ladies but a sixth-grade bully named Kipper Krupp, the nephew of their clueless school principal.
