

CONVENTIONS and Craft

Teach your students to use conventions to craft their writing, not just “correct” it

CONVENTIONS
and Craft

WRITING

GRADE
K-5

Linda Hoyt’s Conventions and Craft provides a year’s worth of instruction in the language skills writers need most—grammar, sentence structure, punctuation and capitalization, word knowledge, and editing.

One convention, or “understanding,” is covered each week in a lesson cycle made up of five “micro-workshops” that take just 10 minutes a day!

Everything you need for an entire year of instruction is included:

• Teacher’s Guide

A comprehensive 192-page, spiral bound, day-by-day guide containing 38 step-by-step weekly lesson cycles that you can teach in any order you choose, plus lesson support pages, assessment tools, a sample year-long plan, and record keeping tool.

• Anthology of Short Texts

14 full-colour, student-friendly informational articles from Scholastic Classroom Magazines and student-written pieces serve as mentor texts.

• Quality Children’s Books

6 grade-appropriate non-fiction books on high-interest subjects also serve as mentor texts.

- Even more teaching tools online on the FREE companion website!

Teacher’s Guide

Anthology

Grade 3 kit shown

Conventions and Craft Grade Units

Kindergarten

978-1-338-12655-6 | $299.99

Grade 1

978-1-338-12656-3 | $299.99

Grade 2

978-1-338-12657-0 | $299.99

Grade 3

978-1-338-12658-7 | $299.99

Grade 4

978-1-338-12659-4 | $299.99

Grade 5

978-1-338-12660-0 | $299.99

Titles & prices are subject to change without notice.

Linda Hoyt

Linda Hoyt spent many years as a classroom teacher, reading specialist, curriculum developer, and staff developer. She is now a full-time author, consultant, and speaker at numerous conferences throughout Canada, the United States, and Australia. Linda’s passion has always been centred on vigorous and engaging classrooms where teachers and children learn together.