

Crazy Fill-In: I Met a Sasquatch!

Grab a pencil and a sheet of paper and write out words according to these prompts, in the order of this list. Then read out the story, inserting the words you supplied. You can do this alone or with others taking turns.

- adjective
- object
- animal sound
- emotion
- action
- body part
- something a firefighter might say
- body part
- adjective
- adjective
- adjective
- something that smells bad
- object
- action
- something someone in a scary movie might say
- action
- action
- emotion
- object
- adjective
- body part
- something you would say to a baby

I was walking through the woods when I heard a <adjective> sound. It sounded like a <object> <animal sound>ing. I felt <emotion>. I decided to <action>. I heard the sound again. This time it was coming from under my <body part>.

I screamed, "<something a firefighter might say>!"

That's when the sasquatch stepped out from under my <body part>. She was <adjective>, <adjective> and <adjective>. She smelled like a <something that smells bad>. She had a <object> under her arm and it was <action>ing.

I gulped. I didn't know what to do.

The sasquatch smiled and said, "<something someone in a scary movie might say>."

I <action>ed. I turned and ran. The sasquatch <action>ed me. I was so <emotion>!

I saw a lake. I didn't know if sasquatches could swim but I decided to dive in. That's when I saw a <object> under the water. It was <adjective> and totally terrifying. I leaped out of the water and right into the sasquatch's arms!

She gave me a kiss on the <body part> and said, "<something you would say to a baby>." And off we went, happily ever after.